IMMEDIATE FAMILIES AT WEDDING

Miss Mary Johnson Weds George Morrissey in Sacred Heart Church

Miss Mary J. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Johnson, of 2215 Logan street, and George A. Morrissey, of 1310 South Twelfth street, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Morrissey, were united in marriage this morning, at 7 o'clock, in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, by the Rev. Father William V. Dalley, priest of that parish. The rings were used and only the immediate relatives were in attendance. A nuptial mass followed. A color scheme of green and white prevailed in the decorations, with palms, ferns, and Southern smilax forming a background for tall vases of white carnations and maiden hair fern.

Following the service a wedding breakfast was served in Rose's Grill Room, with the tables decorated with baskets of violets and pansies. The bride wore an exquisite gown of shadow lace over white embroidered net, with touches of white satin. Her hair, of white shadow lace and chiffon, was a most becoming and elegant shape, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Agnes Agnew, the maid of honor, wore a dainty frock of white silk with pale blue trimmings, and black picture hat. Her corsage bouquet was of pink rose buds. Harry L. Morrissey was best man.

The wedding journey will be followed by a residence at 1210 South Twelfth street. Both Mr. Morrissey and his bride are well known in the city and have a host of friends, who extend congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness.

What the Shops Are Showing

Have you supplied yourself with good-looking shoes for the Thanksgiving holiday? Whether one plans to go to the football game or the tabernacle, one will want a good pair of shoes to give the finishing touches of smartness to one's costume, and with short tailored suits, one's feet are so conspicuous that pretty shoes are most necessary. The Walk-Over Boot Shop, 225 Market street, shows a very smart new model, beautifully cut and finished with a French heel making the foot seem extremely small and dainty. This shoe comes in both patent and dull leather and in two qualities selling for $4.50 and $5.00.

HOLLAND'S EXPORTS

Everyone admires sturdy Holland who so wisely sustains her neutrality in the midst of warring nations, so generously feed the Belgian sufferers, and at the same time so industriously keeps up her commerce in the face of the greatest difficulties. Harrisburg is fortunate in securing some of these Dutch products, and the Studebaker Grocery Store, State and Second streets, has received some delicious hot-house grapes imported directly from Holland. They are also offering French endive, grown from French seed in Holland and this has a rare and delightful flavor which makes a wonderful salad, for Thanksgiving or any other time.

A DECORATIVE AXIOM

That walls must be unobtrusive is an axiom in successful decorating and the A. B. Tack Wall Paper Shop, 1216 North Third street, with their up-to-date showing of exclusive wall coverings, offers a very lovely wall paper in woven fabric effect similar to burlap but very much cheaper. This comes in the restful neutral tones so delightful in living rooms, dining rooms, halls, etc., and one design with hints of rose and green on the soft-hued background is particularly charming, especially for use in rooms with rose-colored hangings, and with this paper almost any furniture would look well.

PICTURES AND HOW TO HAVE THEM

"How I wish I had a picture of that" is a wish easily gratified if Santa Claus brings a camera or kodak down the chimney on Christmas eve, and how many grownups as well as young folks would appreciate such a gift! The Gorgas Drug Store, 16 North Third street, is making a special showing of Premo Cameras and Kodaks, at prices from $1.00 up and at this store one may obtain anything in photographic supplies, not only at Christmas time, but throughout the year. They also show a complete assortment of the new removable leaf photo albums.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath and quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The Tablets' sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently, but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowels and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.
