KIDNEY TROUBLE CAUSES LAME BACK

I am pleased to say a good word for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, as I was troubled for a year or more with my kidneys and annoying symptoms. My brother advised me to try Swamp-Root. I took several bottles of this remedy with excellent results. At the time Swamp-Root was recommended to me, my condition was such that I found it an effort in stooping or bending and in attending to my duties as manager of the $9.99 Store at 122 Main St., Evansville, Ind.

Very truly yours,
 J. E. ALVEY,
 704 Division St., Evansville, Ind.
 Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 21st day of December, 1911.
 EDW. A. TORCHE,
 Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

Oliver Perry Zimmerman, Newport's Oldest Resident, Dies From Fall Down Stairs

Special to The Telegraph
Newport, Pa., Nov. 27.—Oliver Perry Zimmerman, this town's oldest male inhabitant, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wesley W. Potter, in Fourth street, last Tuesday night after an accident which befell him five hours previously, when he fell down stairs. Mr. Zimmerman was born December 25, 1827, and was almost 92 years of age. He was married to Miss Susan Gipe in 1844, who died in 1901. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Isaac Wilds, Wayne, Pa.; Mrs. Wesley W. Potter, with whom he made his home; Mrs. Frank A. Seitzinger, Hershey; Miss Laura E. Zimmerman and Thomas J. Zimmerman, of Harrisburg. Surviving him also are twenty grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. At the call to arms in the '60s Mr. Zimmerman enlisted from Perry county under Captain A. E. Demaree and Colonel F. B. Spearman in Company I, One Hundred and Thirty-third Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and saw service at Antietam, Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville. His term of enlistment having expired, he was discharged in 1863. He re-enlisted in 1865 under Captain Davis and Colonel Davis in Company F, One Hundred and Fourth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, taking part in the Petersburg campaign and the pursuit of Lee to Appomattox, and was finally discharged August 25, 1865. His funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Wesley W. Potter, with burial in Newport Cemetery, the Rev. William C. Vey officiating.

MORRIS' MOVEMENT FOR BAR OPPOSED

Democratic State Chairman Favors "Wet" Club, but Starts Democratic Row

An interesting aftermath of the requests made of liquor dealers by Democratic State Chairman Roland S. Morris for cash for the Democratic campaign fund has come from Philadelphia, where it appears from newspapers that the recommendation of Morris and some friends that a bar be reopened in a club has caused a row. The Philadelphia Record of to-day says: "A special meeting of the Democratic Club has been called at the request of twenty-five members for to-night to protest against the renomination of State Chairman Roland S. Morris, Harry D. Westcott and E. J. Seymour, Jr., that the bar be reopened. Messrs. Morris, Westcott and Seymour were recently appointed a committee to devise means to finance the club. In opposing the 'wet' movement of the Morris committee, President Hoskins has written to members, in part as follows: 'The audit just completed of the eight months that liquor was sold in the club shows an average monthly loss of forty to fifty dollars. It added no strength to the club, drove many good members out, and threatens now the resignation of many more of our best members. At least three hundred members whose names were carried on our rolls and who never paid a dollar of dues, were the greatest advocates of the bar.'

Great Singers Must be "Tobacco Wise"

Tuxedo is the Tobacco Chosen by Opera Stars

MEN who depend upon their voices come to know tobacco as the ordinary smoker never knows it. A sensitive throat or mouth feels the slightest sting, bite or scorch of tobacco.

Tuxedo is the one tobacco which singers, actors, public speakers—all men who guard their throats zealously—can smoke with pleasure and safety.

Tuxedo tobacco cannot sting, bite or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

Tuxedo
 The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo tobacco has made thousands of men converts to the pipe, because it has made pipe-smoking possible for them. Under the famous "Tuxedo Process" the mild, tender leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco are so skillfully treated that Tuxedo burns slowly and affords a cool, mild, thoroughly enjoyable pipe smoke.

Leading men in all walks of life—well-known doctors, lawyers, ministers, lecturers, etc.—smoke Tuxedo and testify to its soothing influence on the throat.
