TECH'S NEW CAPTAIN IS "MUZZ" MILLER

Unanimous Choice of the Students at the Alumni Dinner Held Last Night

At the annual banquet of the Tech High School Alumni Association held at Menger's Cafe, North Second street, last night, Martin E. ("Muzz") Miller was the unanimous choice for captain of the 1915 football team.

The choice of Miller as captain brought the strongest approval possible from outside circles. Miller is a lineman and performed wonderful work for his team this season.

Last night's event was attended by 100, including members of the Tech high school faculty, Dr. W. P. Clark, whose efforts brought the Tech high school when Dr. Clark was a member of the city school board.

CENTRAL HIGH ELECTION

May Take Place During the Coming Week; Probable Leader Central High may elect a 1915 football captain next week. At present who the successor to Captain Byers will be is still a matter of gossip.

A Pretty Band Doesn't Make a Cigar Good

Lithographed bands don't add quality to a cigar. They do add cost—and you pay the difference in cheaper quality tobacco. These are facts.

EL DALLO Cigar

is tobacco quality through and through—no fancy bands to pile up the cost. Instead, we put the extra value into the cigar and into the sanitary tin-fold and tissue wrapping that assure you the original factory freshness.

"Umm" Picks All Star Eleven From Tech, Central and Steelton Teams

Trades School Has Many Stars, but Other Elevens Give Them a Close Race For Honors

All-star pickers are busy in scholastic circles, and as in the past there is a wide difference of opinion as to the players who were the best men this season. In sizing up the right of a player to be listed as a star those who have seen many games are better able to pick an "all star" game. However, even at that, it is as safe bet that in a half-dozen selections no two would include the same line-up.

LEBANON VALLEY CHAMPIONS

The football team that made Lebanon Valley College famous this year has many boosters in Harrisburg. In the line-up are also former local high school stars.

Central Scrubs Hold Tech Team to No Score

Central Scrubs and Tech High Scrubs in annual battle yesterday played a scoreless game. Central showed the best form. Three times Tech had the ball on Central's five-yard line, but failed to score.

FUR-TRIMMED COATS.

The best-selling garments at present are plush coats with fur collars, says the Dry Goods Economist. A second are corduroy coats, many of which are fur trimmed. Other pile fabrics are such as broadtail, lynx and Persian lamb are receiving considerable attention.

THE NEW NECKWEAR

In spite of the vogue for the closed and semi-closed collar, the better types of open-neck collars with the high pointed flare or cape effect in the back continue in good position, according to the Dry Goods Economist. In cloth, coats of heavy chevots and camel's hair effects are being asked for. These also are trimmed with fur.

Merke to Stay With Giants

The widely circulated report that Fred Merke was due to be traded from the New York Giants was absolutely without foundation. Manager McGraw considers the big first sacker one of the most valuable men on the team and he has denied that Merke had been considered in connection with prospective trades.

FEDS DROP EDDIE PLANK

Price Too High For the Chifed and Negotiations Cease Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—Evidently the Federal League hasn't the money to throw away to players that it did a year ago. Dispatches from Chicago assert that Charles Weeghman, president of the Chifed, has stopped all negotiations with Eddie Plank, the veteran southpaw, on whom Mack recently asked waivers.

JOYCE FAIR AND ERNEST TRUOX IN "THE DUMMY" AT MAJESTIC TUESDAY

The character of "Barney Cook," in "The Dummy," which is coming to the Majestic, Tuesday evening, was founded on a real "boy detective," the son of a United States Secret Service man. This boy was an operative in the employ of the Secret Service under Chief Wilkie, and his exploits were told to Mr. O'Higgins, who, with Harriet Ford, wrote the play, by the boy himself, and first made into the Collier's stories on which the play was founded.
