Knocks Out Young Diggins With Right-Hand Punch
Special to The Telegraph
Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—Kid Williams, the world's bantamweight champion, for the second time knocked out Freddie (Young) Diggins, of this city. Last night at the Olympia A. A. the title holder with a terrific right-handed punch to the jaw sent the game little Philadelphian to dreamland before a big crowd.

Until two minutes had been traversed in the third round Diggins had been making a great showing against the tow-headed title holder, but when Williams cut loose Diggins was done for.

Church Wants Fire Protection

The trustees of the Second Baptist Church, Cameron and State streets, asked Council to provide some safe, and a guard against possible fire because of the proximity of a junkshop. Council will take up the question with the City Solicitor. The paving assessment for the Sixth Street United Brethren Church was also authorized.

Council passed a resolution transferring to a fund for taking up the necessary bonds for the paving of Front street from Maclay to Division street to the extent of $22,000. This money had been appropriated and if the city ever loses out in a suit brought by property owners for half the street assessment the money will be ready, If the city wins, the money will be paid back.

COLONIAL

"Felix," the mind-reading duck, most superhuman of dumb animals, came to the Colonial yesterday and convulsed big audiences yesterday with his cleverness and unusual mental abilities. The Vander Koors, comedians of ability, present "Felix," and the fun that these three artists can't raise isn't worth raising. The remaining Keith acts include a breezy song and dance duo; a clever comedy sketch, and a duo of blackface comedians in bright gags and good songs. "The Phantom Detective," a splendid feature film in three party, is an added attraction to the vaudeville offering for the first three days of the week.—Advertisement.

"TREY O' HEARTS"—PALACE TODAY

Back in the mountain town of Mesquite, the chauffeur effects temporary repairs on his motor car and starts out with Trine, following the road taken by Marrophat and Jimmy in pursuit of the fucitives.

Judith and Rose are about all in with ead on his folded arms. The miners make the trin down into the canyon and recover the bodies of Marrophat and Jimmy, bringing them up to camp.

Lafte in the afternoon Judith wakes and steals out of the room, her purpose being to bid a last farewell to Alan. Finding him asleep, she bends over and kisses his cheek. She is surprised by Rose, who has, on rising snatched up the revolver which Judith has placed on the chair beside the bed.
