The "Prismatic Fete," arranged by the Sunday School of the Baughman Memorial Methodist Church of New Cumberland for Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, promises to be one of the prettiest entertainments ever given in the town. A musicale in the auditorium will precede the fete in the basement.

All the booths are to be in the rainbow colors, with the attendants costumed in the same shade and articles on sale carrying out the color scheme. The blue booth will be entirely Dutch, and the menu served will include sauerkraut, mashed potatoes and wieners. In a cabin one will find a "Mystic Well" with the "Old Caken Bucket" bringing up expected treasures and at the pink booths there will be embroideries and other fancy work. Chocolate with whipped cream, chocolate cakes and candies served by "la belle Chocolatiere" will be in evidence at the brown table and everywhere one may secure good things to eat, both cooked and uncooked, as well as flowers and useful articles for the house and for holiday gifts.
