LAST HANGING IN PHILADELPHIA
 By Associated Press
 Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—Famous old Moyamensing Prison, in this city, in which scores of murderers went to their doom, was the scene to-day of the last hanging that will take place in Philadelphia, as under a new law electrocution at the new Western Penitentiary was substituted as the death penalty. William Abel, 38 years old, who was sentenced before the time fixed for the law to go into effect, was the last to be hanged.

PUBLIC SERVICE HEARS GAS PROTEST

Harrisburg Case Presented Today in Midst of Big Rush of Cases

The Public Service Commission today heard the complaint of A. K. Thomas and other residents of Pleasant View against the Harrisburg Gas Company. This complaint was based on the fact that the company refused to extend its gas mains from Twenty-first and State streets so as to furnish the complainants with service. The complainants were represented by George F. Lumb and the gas company by J. H. Minds, of Philadelphia. Charles S. Keefer, of Woodside Station, Dauphin county, has filed with the Public Service Commission a complaint against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, petitioning for a signal post, station platform and the installation of heat in the station. The commission to-day continued the hearing of the Philadelphia Electric Company case, in which complaint was filed by Director Morris L. Cooke and others. Expert witnesses were heard to-day. The hearing will go on to-morrow. Formal complaint was filed with the commission against the proposed increase of passenger rates by Charles H. Kendrick, representing citizens of Wynnwood. Informal protest was received from J. K. Carr, of Philadelphia, and H. L. Everett, of Norristown. Edwin M. Abbott, attorney for the United Business Men's Association and Commuters' Association, who have heretofore filed a complaint on this subject with the commission, presented a statement in support of the contention that the commission was authorized under the public service company law to postpone the effective date of the proposed increase. Edward M. Frear, of State College, complains against the lighting service furnished by the State Centre Electric Company, alleging that the light is not sufficiently bright to read by.

DON JAIME UNDER ARREST

By Associated Press
 Paris, Dec. 3, 5.30 a. m.—The Echire declares in its issue to-day that Don Jaime of Bourbon, the Spanish pretender, addressed an appeal to his partisans some time ago to side with France in the war. This came to the knowledge of the Austrian authorities and as Don Jaime lives in Austria he was placed under arrest in his castle.

PRISONERS TRY TO ESCAPE

Lancaster, via London, Dec. 3, 8.11 A. M.—An attempt to escape made last night by a thousand prisoners in the concentration camp here was thwarted by the guards, who charged the mobs with fixed bayonets, wounding several.

Ex-President Taft Casts Shadow Over Progressive Camp

Special to The Telegraph
 Chicago, Ill., Dec. 3.—A big shadow that loomed heavily over the gathering of leaders of the Progressive party did not dampen the enthusiasm of the delegates as they cheered George W. Perkins in his opening speech yesterday.

The "shadow" was none other than William Howard Taft, who, it was reported, would be the Republican candidate for President in 1916. "You may be sure," said a prominent Mosser, "that the Progressive party will keep on with its fight so long as the prospect of Mr. Taft's candidacy remains. Of course, it could never affiliate with the Republicans in case a reactionary is nominated. It would be better to go ahead and lose an election than to lose our principles." Senator Moses E. Clapp, of Minnesota, made the keynote speech. He urged that the delegates adopt "Go ahead!" for a slogan and to prepare for the 1916 campaign. Colonel Roosevelt sent no message.
