ROTARIANS ARRANGE FOR BELGIAN BENEFIT

over all profits for the week for relief of suffering Belgians.

At a meeting of the special committee in charge at the offices of A. E. Buchanan, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, this morning the members voted to co-operate with the local committee organized for war relief purposes. The Rotary committee will meet next Monday afternoon with the emergency relief committee at the home of Mrs. M. E. Olmsted, in North Front street, to lay the project before that body. The money to be raised by the Rotary Club will be forwarded through the relief committee for the relief of suffering Belgians.

Subcommittees were named by the Rotarians to take up the various phases of the work and to arrange for a big "Rotary night" at the Orpheum on Monday, December 14, when there will be all manner of "stunts" of an unusual order. The theater will be decorated for the event.

A special committee will distribute 25 and 50 cent tickets among members, which will be redeemed at the box office any night during the week for reserved seats. The prices will be as usual. Tickets will be reserved a week ahead and purchasers are urged to make their reservations early in order to insure good seats.

The Rotary Club has a record for big successes and is determined to make the Belgian benefit week the greatest of all.

Russian advance east of the plain of the Mazurian lakes.

Emperor William has returned from his trip to the battlefields of East Prussia and Poland for a short stay in Berlin.

THIRTY-FIVE BELGIAN PHYSICIANS CAPTURED

By Associated Press
Amsterdam, via London, Dec. 4, 4.30 A. M.—"There is great indignation among the Belgians over the action of the Germans in arresting 35 Belgian medical men who believed that they had been granted safe conduct," says the Flushing correspondent of the Handelsblad. "They have been imprisoned in Heidelberg, the Germans in explanation quoting several cases of alleged bad treatment of captured German physicians by the French."

"Burgomaster Max, of Brussels, in a letter received in Brussels complains that he has been transferred from a fortress to a convict prison where he is being treated like a desperate criminal rather than a military prisoner."

M. Max, the Belgian Burgomaster of Brussels, was taken into custody because, according to reports he declined to pay part of the indemnity owed on his city by the Germans. Late dispatches said that he was being held in Leipzig.

ALLIES AT MONTENEGRO

By Associated Press
London, Dec. 4, 7.55 A. M.—A dispatch to the Central News from Berlin says that according to an official announcement made there a number of transports, escorted by British and French warships, have reached Antwerp, the sole seaport of Montenegro. The Austrian ships guarding the coast are said to have retired before the newcomers.

GERMANS PREVENT FAMINE

By Associated Press
Berlin, Dec. 4 (via wireless to Sayville, L. I.).—The German military authorities have taken measures to prevent famine among the inhabitants of the parts of Russian Poland occupied by the German army, according to news given out by the press bureau to-day.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS SUFFER

By Associated Press
Berlin, Dec. 4 (by wireless to Sayville, L. I.).—Among the items of news given out by the German official press bureau to-day is the following: "The Russian military newspaper Ruskyy Invalid states that the number of Russian officers killed, wounded or taken prisoners now totals 25,000."

BOYSON FUNERAL

Funeral services for Andrew C. Boyson, who died Tuesday at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. G. Fry, 627 Curtin street, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by the Rev. Harvey Klaier, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church. Burial was made in the Harrisburg Cemetery.
