S. O. S. CALL SENT BY WIND-TOSSED SHIP

Liner Antony, From Liverpool to Para, in Distress North of the Lizard

London, Dec. 5, 2.40 P. M.—The Booth Steamship Company's liner Antony, bound from Liverpool for Para, has been disabled by the storm now sweeping over England and is in distress fifty miles north of the Lizard.

The captain of a local steamer received the signal "Want immediate assistance," but was unable to help the Antony, his own vessel being short of coal.

The Norwegian steamer Waterloo of 1,283 tons foundered off the Lizard at midnight. Three persons were saved. The remainder of the crew is missing.

SALOON OPPOSED BY SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Board Will Urge Court to Refuse Transfer Because of Nearness of Cameron Building

The school board at its regular meeting last night passed a resolution protesting against the transfer of the liquor license owned by Patrick Sullivan from 727 State street to 1819 North Third street, in the Eleventh ward.

The resolution was passed just before the close of the session and will be presented to the Dauphin county court next Tuesday when the application for the transfer is heard.

The objections that members of the school board have to the placing of the Sullivan place uptown is that the proposed site of the saloon is only 200 feet away from the Cameron school building at Green and Munich streets.

ITALY'S STAND ON WAR TREATY CAUSES ALARM

Terms of Triple Alliance to Be Made Public if Germany Questions Loyalty; French Gain Foothold in Alsace; Kaiser's Forces Perform Heroic Feat in Cutting Through Russian Ring; Poland Campaign Undecided

Italy's attitude in the European war has again become a source of concern, in view of Premier Salandra's declaration that his country was in no way bound to fight with Germany and Austria and the intimation that if her loyalty to treaty obligations were questioned further she would disclose the text of the triple alliance agreement.

The German government's appointment of Prince von Buelow, former chancellor, as temporary head of the embassy at Rome is interpreted by Rome dispatches as meaning that Berlin would exert strong pressure to prevent Italy from joining forces with the allies.

The newest phase of the war, so far as was indicated by the day's dispatches, is heavy fighting in Alsace, where the French have succeeded in maintaining a foothold on German territory since the opening of hostilities. Comparatively little has been heard of the struggle there, which is virtually a separate campaign, but now the French apparently have begun a vigorous offensive movement.

Dispatches are beginning to come in from Petrograd which give a closer view of the war in the east. They indicate that the Germans who fought their way out of the Russian trap performed a most desperate and valorous feat. The heavy force southeast of Lodz which was hemmed in is said to have cut its way with bayonets, step by step, for fifteen miles in the face of constant attacks, until it was able to rejoin the main body. This battle is described as the bloodiest and most pitiless of the war.

Berlin claims heavy captures of prisoners in this struggle, while from Kiev comes the announcement that the fortress there is crowded with German prisoners. Incidentally, Kiev reports that since the beginning of the war 130,000 soldiers and 2,500 officers have passed through Kiev as prisoners of war.
