

COURAGE IN WAR

What war teaches—as well as business life

Courage in war or business is born of good pure blood. Pure blood is the greatest blessing mankind can have.

Millions of people need this powerful vegetable remedy that puts the stomach, liver and bowels in fine condition; that clears the skin of pimples, rash, blemishes and eczema; that dissolves boils and carbuncles; that makes nerves strong and steady and gives to pale, weak, rundown people the fullest measure of health and happiness.

LOCOMOTIVE WEIGHT FACTOR IN WAGES

Brotherhood Leader Repeats His Views Before Arbitrators at Chicago

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—"We cannot get away from the theory that the engine crew is entitled to share in the profits from the increased productivity of its labor," so declared William S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, yesterday, in testimony before the Western railroad arbitration conference.

Carter said that this theory was enunciated at the Eastern railroad arbitration by E. A. Worthington, a member of the railroad managers' subcommittee. Worthington, at that time, also put himself on record as favoring the men's contention that the weight of the locomotive was the proper basis for computing the crew's pay, said Carter.

Carter's announcement of the advanced economic stand of the engine men, coupled with the fact that they are trying to have an award embodying it put in effect as a matter of right, whereas at present it is in effect only by the agreement of the employers, aroused deep interest among those following the hearings.

AMUSEMENTS
MAJESTIC
Friday, December 11—"Billy, the Kid."
ORPHEUM
Every afternoon and evening—High-Class Vaudeville.
COLONIAL
Every afternoon and evening—Vaudeville and Pictures.
"BILLY, THE KID"
Berkeley Haswell, who began his acting during the knickerbocker period of his life and who is to-day one of the favorite young actors playing the popular picture houses, has been specially engaged to play the title role in "Billy, the Kid," the very successful play of Western life, which will be the attraction at the Majestic, Friday, matinee and night. The play is full of sensational incidents and climaxes. Through the act of his father, "Billy" is made an outlaw and becomes a bad man. In the end he reforms and re-establishes himself in the community. In young Haswell's support are many other capable actors.—Advertisement.
"DAMON AND PYTHIAS"
No story of man's friendship has lived more vividly through all the ages than that of Damon and Pythias. Every man, woman and child has felt its thrill and has been uplifted by its enduring sentiment. It will be presented at the Majestic Theater Saturday, matinee and night, in spectacular fashion. The triumph of this drama, making from the wonderful Universal studios, it will be in six parts and all feature the big Keith names that appeared in the feature. The play is a story of glory will be types of unsurpassed producing.—Advertisement.
ORPHEUM
Captain Sorcho and his deep sea divers will leave the Orpheum after tonight's performance as well as all the other diverting vaudeville attractions that are grouped about this interesting headliner. Pretty Dolly Combs, who has been playing at the Orpheum since she was a child, and his clever company, and a splendid comedy drama entitled "Tricked," are some of the big Keith names that appeared on this same bill. Admirers' stereotyping conceptions in magic will undoubtedly find much to please them in the feature attraction for next week, which is called "Pekin Mysteries," and which is an act so far removed from anything we have seen that there is no way in which to make a comparison. Six Chinese present the act, so naturally the settings, etc., are strictly Oriental. Strange to say that to-day's most celebrated magicians are Chinese, who for some reason or other seem to have the most creative imaginations in this respect, and in turn they work them out more skillfully. It will be remembered that up until this season Ching Ling Foo was recognized the peer of these Oriental illusionists. Ching Ling Foo was in Harrisburg twice last season, once at the Orpheum and again as he added attraction to the Eva Tanqueri show. "Pekin Mysteries" is said to outdo all Oriental illusions that have preceded it. Cameron and Gavlor, a nifty comedy couple; J. C. Nugent and company, in a new comedy sketch, called "The Squarer"; Nana, the sensational whirlwind dancer; Henry Lewis, the quite eminent and comical actor; and several other attractions of merit are slated to appear at the Orpheum next week.—Advertisement.

AWFUL TORTURE WITH PIMPLES
Spread Over Body. Had No Rest. Could Find No Relief Anywhere. Nearly Crazy. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Healed.
726 Moss St., Reading, Pa.—"About four years and a half ago I noticed little red pimples on my legs. They began to itch me and finally they began to spread over my body. I was getting worse every day as work and I had no rest. I would have to scratch under my arms then my legs, walk a few steps having a little relief, then it began again on my body, then legs again, then my back until I was nearly crazy for it was an awful torture. I would go to bed early and all I would do was roll around scratching my body all the time. In winter my body and legs were covered with eruption from scratching and rubbing so that I could hardly stand it. I could find no relief. When I would take my bath in the evening I would have to take off my underclothing carefully from my body and legs. I was tortured by that awful irritation.
"I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I took a bath with warm water and Cuticura Soap and put the Cuticura Ointment on my back from my neck to my feet. I did this every night until in a few weeks there was not a sign of eruption on my body. My skin was entirely healed." (Signed) Frank Roy, Feb. 20, 1914.
Although Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold throughout the world, a sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
