PEARL NECKLACE LOST BY MRS. VANDERBILT

String Valued at $10,000; Reward of $500 Offered For Its Return

Special to The Telegraph New York, Dec. 7.—Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Sr., is advertising for the return of a pearl necklace containing more than 200 stones and valued at $10,000. The loss occurred some days ton of the Carranza government. ago, but published announcement was not made until Saturday, when this notice appeared:

Lost, two strings of pearls with locket; $500 reward and no questions

"Lost, two strings of pearls with locket; $500 reward and no questions asked if returned to John H. Gleason, No. 20 East Forty-sixth street."
Gleason is a scalp specialist, with many rich and well known patrons. Mrs. Vanderbilt lost her leeklace on the occasion of a visit to his establishment. Whether the necklace disappeared while she was actually in the Forty-sixth street house, or as she left the building could not be learned last night, when information came to The World that it was Mrs. Vanderbilt in whose behalf Gleason was advertising.

FORD TO FEED UNEMPLOYED

Beds n Auto Manufacturer's Hospital to Be Provided Also Special to The Telegraph Detroit, Mich., Dec. 7.—Lodging and breakfast for the homeiess unemployed will be provided by Henry Ford at the new Ford Hospital. Cots for about fifty will be available to-morrow, but Mr. Ford hopes to care for many more as the rigors of winter began to pinch the unfortunate. When it was suggested to Mr. Ford that the prosperity of the Ford Automobile Company's employed drew many of the unemployed to Detroit, he said:
"If that is so, then I propose to care for some of these men who would work but cannot."

ONE EVENING'S TANGO IS NOW VALUED AT $140

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 7.—One night of tangoing is worth $140, according to Douglas Jarmath. Jarmath sent his best suit to Morris Weinberg, a tailor, to be pressed and cleaned, intending to take his best girl to a tango party. When the suit came back, according to Jarmath, the pants were so tight that he blushed when he thought of what would happen if he tried to tango.

Representative Augustus P. Gardner, of Massachusetts, one of the strongest Republican members of the lower house, had heavy backing for his proposed investigation of the army and navy. His resolution for a committee to begin inquiry will be taken up by the rules committee, which must report to the House for action. There have as yet been no good guesses as to whether or not the House will pass or defeat the resolution.

The inference has gone out that the national administration is opposed to the plan, but President Wilson has said nothing definite. Secretary of War Garrison has insisted that all the information that could be gathered by placing on the stand army officers and officials of the navy department has been sent to Congress in reports from the department and is therefore available.

In the meantime the work of Mi Gardner has stirred many persons throughout the country, as a result of which a National Security League has been organized to make a fight for a greater navy and army. tango.

He sued Weinberg for $150, scheduling the pants as $10 and "one evening tangoing" at $140.

517-519 Oak street—takes up a whole block."

The proposition sounded good to McKenna and he asked T. A. J. Shafer, who was coming to Kansas City, to investigate the property.

Shafer-wandered into the criminar court building, looking for Nos. 515-517-519 Oak street.

"There's your property, right over there," James McCormick, a deputy marshal, told Shafer; "but it happens to be the courthouse."

"Guess McKenna won't want to trade," decided Shafer as he left.

CONSTABLE RECEIVES EXTRA COSTS FOR HEIFER CHASE

Bangor, Maine, Dec. 7.—When a constable has extra trouble serving a writ of replevin on a helfer he (the constable) must be allowed extra costs, under a decision of Judge Blanchard. Constable Sheffington Kelso told the court these things happened when he wen out to replevin a helfer in connection with a civil suit:

Animal led him merry chase through four miles of swamp.

Helfer circuited a mountain.

Ugly dog held up capture of helfer for two hours.

Ugly dog held up capture of heifer for two hours.

Kelso broke through ice twice.
Also stepped into a mink trap.
Lost his jackknife.
And not only tore his clothing ruined his shoes and lost a lot of time, but was held up to derision by a young woman who wrote a funny poem about his chase and read it at a grange meeting.

PETROGRAD DOES NOT DENY FALL OF LODZ

Austria Reported to Have Asked Russia For Terms of Peace

By Associated Press London, Dec, 7, 11.35 A. M.—A comparison of the reports from Berlin and Petrograd leads to the conclusion that the Germans again occupy Lodz, from escaped with $15 worth of goods.

Hungary, according to reports from the Russian capital, is the weak point in the armor of the Teuton allies. These messages from Petrograd say that even as early as the time of the fall of Lemberg, Austria asked Russia for terms of peace. The story is again revived in Petrograd in the form of a report that the Hungarian prime minister, on a recent visit to Emperor William, demanded better military protection for Hungary, lack of which would cause the loss of the kingdom. Diplomatically interest is centered in Rome, where the statement of ex-Premier Gioletti that Austria planned war against Servia in 1913 has caused something of a sensation.

THIEF SMASHES WINDOWS

Lodz is in their hands, while Petrograd admits that the situation there is desperate.

If the fall of the city is, a fact, it indicates that communication with Warsaw again is seriously menaced, but a vemiofficial statement from Petrograd leclares that the Russians are strong nough to hold the invaders in Northstein Poland and will content themselves with doing this while devoting their main energies to the reduction of Cracow and the invasion of Hungary.
