ONE-YEAR RESIDENCE RULE

Will Be Observed by University of Pittsburgh in Selecting Material

Pittsburgh, Dec. 11.—In an effort to raise the athletic standing of the University of Pittsburgh so that teams from that school can participate in contests with larger eastern institutions a one-year residence rule similar to that in effect in larger colleges and in the western conference is to be adopted here.

The football advisory committee, composed of prominent alumni workers, has already favorably acted on the proposition and a resolution from it will be acted upon at the January meeting of the university athletic council. The rule is the most drastic eligibility requirement colleges demand. Under its provisions no student is eligible for varsity athletic contests until he has attended the university for one year.

Plans now in preparation will give basketball enthusiasts an interesting series of games each week between girls' teams.

National League Ends Harmonious Sessions

New York, Dec. 11.—The National League of Professional Baseball Clubs closed its annual meeting here late yesterday afternoon, after having been in session intermittently since Tuesday. Little business of importance was accomplished in the gathering, although a number of subjects were discussed before being laid over for further action at the schedule meeting in February.

The magnates were slow in assembling, and President John K. Tener was obliged to leave for Philadelphia before the organization really got down to business. Considerable time was devoted to a further discussion of the proposed rule which would prevent the withdrawal of waivers on request. The weaker clubs of the senior league were eager for its adoption, but the resolution was tabled for final action at the next meeting.

While the National League officially closed its session with the afternoon meeting, the managers of the various clubs were still endeavoring to strengthen their teams by sales or purchases late to-day.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC
This evening—"Billy, the Kid."
To-morrow, afternoon and evening—"Damon and Pythias."

ORPHEUM
Every afternoon and evening—High-Class Vaudeville.

COLONIAL
Every afternoon and evening—Vaudeville and Pictures.

"BILLY, THE KID"
A good-natured Irishman, sharp as he is witty, a fine old school Southern Colonel and his colored orderly keep the audiences who witness "Billy, the Kid," convulsed with laughter. A few hours in the company of these genial spirits is warranted to "drive dull care away." "Billy, the Kid," which is always sure to be a welcome, will be seen at the Majestic this evening. The stellar role is played by Berkeley Hassell, and he has been surrounded by capable company and an adequate production.—Advertisement.

"DAMON AND PYTHIAS"
In staging the wondrously beautiful pictures seen in the Universal's big dramatic spectacle of "Damon and Pythias," which comes to the Majestic to-morrow, matinee and night, the director, Otis Turner, was fortunate in securing for the out-of-door scenes a picturesque garden in California, which had never before been pictured. The garden is owned by a millionaire, and only through Mr. Turner's personal friendship with the owner, dating back to college days at Princeton, made the camera use of it possible. The garden on which more than 100,000 has been expended in planting tropical plants and many trees now extinct in America, is an ideal setting for the surroundings and atmosphere of the Grecian story. Its white marble pergolas, sunny walks, and onyx-lined pools set off by the shaded hills, formed just the perfect settings for Hellenic pictures of "Damon and Pythias" and "The Friends' Pelt Actor."

ORPHEUM
"Pekin Mysteries," the unusual headliner of the Orpheum's current bill, has made a hit. Admirers of the quartet Orient are bound to delight in this Orient of performers, not only because of the distinctly foreign atmosphere they bring with them, but because their feats are so skillful and by all odds the best we have seen. In the act of "Pekin Mysteries," the tricks just of the excellence of each of them. There is no stalling, no "padding" tricks just for the sake of time. Each one of them is extraordinary. Equilibrium, magic and Oriental dances add to the delight. Supporting this Oriental novelty is Betty Bond and Jimmie Casson, in the delightful and funny "The Ork and Light." Nana, the Parisian dancer, appears in a splendid Parisian dance, a surprise comedy that is richly humorous; J. C. Nugent and company serenade with "The Squarer," that calls in clever playing, interesting situations and bright lines. The Ork and Light is replete with merit and clever entertainment.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL
A regulation "big time" vocal offering, in fact, one that is seldom seen on popular-priced vaudeville bills, is the rattling act of the Salon Singers at offering at the Colonial for the last half of the week. Such delightful harmonious, six of them, together with pleasing personalities and excellent stage pictures, is equal to any attraction of its kind that Harrisburgers have seen. Other clever Keltie acts of the bill include: "Wading with Gillette," comedy, in a comedy playlet entitled, "Huckin's Run"; Dawson and Gillette, comedy; Irving, novel instrumentalist.—Advertisement.

PHOTOPLAY TODAY
"The Master of the House" is a feature show and should not be missed by our patrons. Along with this we present a two-act Vitaphone comedy, with the funny Billy Kirk and Lee Boggs in the leading roles. The many funny things that happen in this Vita-laugh, shown at the Photoplay to-day, makes it one of the best comedies ever shown at this place of amusement.—Advertisement.

VICTORIA SPECIAL TODAY
The funniest Keystone comedy ever offered in Harrisburg, featuring Mabel and Fatty in bathing suits, is "The Sea Nymphs," a ripping two-reeler, which, with the funny Billy Kirk and Lee Boggs, the average photoplays at the Victoria Theater, 223 Market street, to-day only. Fatty, with wife, mother-in-law, and impediments in the shape of numerous boxes, bags and bundles, goes for an outing at Santa Catalina island. On the steamer he is badly smitten. Mabel is traveling with the parental necessity—a very significant-looking little father with side whiskers. Fatty unaware of the relationship interferes with the old duck flirting with the young chicken and pitches him overboard. The whole party then goes swimming and Fatty and Mabel give a diving exhibition and the thrilling program concludes with Fatty getting his and Mabel is dragged unceremoniously off by her enraged parent.

Equally full of thrills is "Lieutenant Darling and the International Jewel Thieves," a three-reel special, which also is at the Victoria to-day. Exciting adventures, plots and counter-plots intermingled with daring escapes comprise every inch of the film.

Another Keystone comedy, which is full of fun, is "The Wild and Woolly West," in one reel, and "The Father Daily News," showing latest views on the big war, conclude to-day's Victoria program.—Advertisement.

POSTMASTER HELD FOR COURT
Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 11.—William M. Hambleton, for a number of years postmaster at Kirkwood, was given a hearing yesterday by United States Commissioner Howard J. Lowell on the charge of falsifying his reports to the Post Office Department. The accused was held under bail for trial in the United States District Court.

FUNERAL OF JOHN PENTZ
Lemoyne, Pa., Dec. 11.—Funeral services of John Lemuel Pentz, 42 years old, who died Tuesday morning from tuberculosis, were held at his home Thursday afternoon. The body was removed to the home of his mother at Mechanicsburg, where services will be held this afternoon, the Rev. E. D. Keen, pastor of the United Evangelical Church officiating.

MEAT CAUSES APPENDICITIS
May Have Sent Brickley, of Harvard, to Hospital During Football Season

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 11.—Too much meat in the training diet of the Harvard football squad may have been responsible for the attack of appendicitis which kept Captain Brickley out of the game most of last season, in the opinion of Dr. Richard C. Newton, president of the New Jersey State Board of Health. In a letter to one of the university publications Dr. Newton says: "The idea that meat eating may cause appendicitis is so prevalent that it would seem to have some foundation in fact. He suggests that this extremely important matter deserves all the study and research necessary to elucidate the question."

"FRIENDS" PELT ACTOR
While playing on the stage of the Handshaw Theater, Third and Harris streets, last night, John Fitzgerald, an amateur actor, was bombarded with stale vegetables by a number of "friends." He left the stage.
