The Joybells of Christmas Will Ring in the Store Tomorrow

Within the border lines of peaceful, happy America the spirit of Santa Claus is beginning to permeate into every city, village and hamlet. The flood-gates of generosity at its best are opening and man's humanity to man in thought and deed has full sway.

This has been transformed into a beautiful Christmas store—beautiful in its stocks, happy in its scientific arrays for the easy selection of gifts, highly efficient in its service and comfort to shoppers. Every hour of every day is a busy one, but you know it has now become a truism that morning shopping means greater satisfaction.

Gifts For Men-- Each Has an Interest All Its Own

- Gloves—silk shirts—sweaters—boxed novelties—these are a few that come to mind as we review the gift hints coming from this important department. And, by the way, what's on the list for dad? He may have everything under the sun, but don't let that "bluff" interfere with the sentiment that is the real enjoyment of giving.

Let Handkerchiefs Solve One or More of Your Many Gift Problems: A Worthy Display

- Many of the choice boxed handkerchiefs show the skill that is found only in the deft fingers of their Irish makers, and thousands of others are here from France—a display that would not be possible if we had not received the greater portion months ago.

A Chafing Dish or a Nickel-Plated Coffee Percolator Will Make Many a Woman Happy on Christmas

- Give her something for the home and she will remember the gift as long as it is in service. The Basement offers many attractive gift suggestions, and those that seem to be meeting with greatest favor are Japanese china, cut glass chafing dishes and nickel-plated copper coffee percolators.

The Happiest Children in Town Will Be Found in Toyland To-morrow

You'll wish you were a youngster again yourself if you spend five minutes in Toyland, on the third floor, to-morrow, among the boys and girls—and you'll want to rename Toyland to Happyfacetown, besides. Every conceivable kind of toy is here to make the youngsters happy.
