MOOSE LODGE PLANS CHRISTMAS CHARITY

Good Fellows of Order Will Provide Cheer For Needy Families and Poor Children

More than one hundred youngsters of the West End will be given toys, candy and other Christmas goodies on Christmas morning by the members of Harrisburg Lodge, No. 107, Loyal Order of Moose, at the Moose Home, Third and Boas streets. In addition to taking care of the boys and girls the members will distribute a large number of baskets to the worthy poor of the city.

It has been the annual custom of the Harrisburg order to give presents of toys and food to the needy families of the West End and the lodge is planning to make this year's charity work the most inclusive in the history of the order. All of the members are co-operating and special endeavor is being made to give the many poor boys and girls of the city a bit of Christmas joy.

A special committee has been appointed to obtain the necessary things and to take charge of the distribution of gifts. In order to obtain Christmas cheer, personal application must be made to one of the members of the committee or one of the members of the lodge must make a personal recommendation of the needy family.

The committee members include J. A. Searfauss, chairman, A. Myers, treasurer, George P. Satchell, Charles E. Rea, secretary, and Edward L. Rinkenbach.

The Christmas tree which is decorated annually for the youngsters will be placed in the parlor of the home and may be seen from 8 to 10 o'clock Christmas Eve.

WOULD ABOLISH WOODEN CARS Commerce Commission Makes Several Recommendations

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—In its annual report to Congress to-day the Interstate Commerce Commission makes these principal recommendations:

Laws to control railway capitalization; compulsory use of steel cars in passenger trains and prohibition of the use of wooden cars between the use of steel ones; definite penalties for violations of the hours of service act; laws to make explicit and certain the authority of the commission to examine all documents and records of railroads; to definitely fix one period, preferably three years, in which legal actions may be started relating to transportation charges.

All the commission's recommendations are made in extraordinarily brief form and without discussion. Otherwise the commission's report is a chronological review of its work of the year.

"FARMER" CREASY OPPOSED

Two Candidates Want to Succeed Him as Grange Master

Meadville, Pa., Dec. 11.—Interest grows in the contest in the State Grange convention for State Master. William T. Creasy, who is out of favor for re-election, says he will have no opposition when the time comes for announcement of candidates, but James G. McSparran and E. B. Dorsett say positively they will be candidates before the convention.

Strong efforts were made to get McSparran off the ticket, and, failing in that, an effort was begun to get Dorsett to stay out; but both refused positively.

Mrs. Nettie E. Allman, who has been serving as secretary since the death of her husband and is a candidate for regular election to the office, has strong opposition in W. R. Tucker, of Crawford, and yesterday a third candidate appeared in the field, James C. McClure, of Hadley, and he is working hard for the place.

GREGORY MAKES HIS REPORT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Attorney General Gregory made his first report to Congress to-day as head of the Department of Justice. He recommended several amendments to existing laws and gave a comprehensive review of the work of the department for the fiscal year. His principal recommendation was for an amendment to the commodities clause of the interstate commerce act designed to block the way of any common carrier which seeks to transport products over its lines in which it has any interest whatsoever.

RECORD CROP IS PRODUCED

Washington, Dec. 11.—The United States this year has produced the greatest crop of cotton in its history. More than sixteen million bales, 15,946,000 of lint cotton and lint cotton unofficially estimated at from 600,000 to 650,000 bales, are the crop.
