French Claim Successes, Saying They Have Captured German Trenches and Many Prisoners; Berlin Makes Denial of Several Official Statements Sent From Paris; Sultan Tells Parliament Turkey Was Forced Into War

The British military authorities announced to-day that fighting in Northern France had recommenced and that a combined attack by the allies in Belgium, to the south of Ypres, had resulted in the capture of German trenches and substantial progress.

The definite statement is made in Rotterdam that the Germans have begun a retreat, falling back in Belgium toward a prepared line further from the coast. Official confirmation was lacking, however.
