STOCK PRICES RISE WITH FREIGHT RATE

Commission's Decision Comes Unexpectedly and Causes General Rally Temporarily

New York, Dec. 18. - The decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission came unexpectedly to Wall Street, which had not expected definite word until next week. It came at a time when the stock market was weak and helped to bring about a general recovery. Prices rose from 1 1/2 to 3 points above the low level of the session. Reading registered 2 1/2 points and Baltimore and Ohio 1 1/2. Other Eastern roads scored lesser gains. The rally was not fully maintained, prices yielding from fractions to a full point after the short interest had covered. The list soon settled down to further dullness.

MEDICAL AID NEED OF FOREIGN TROOPS

Relief Work For Wounded Will Begin Monday at Headquarters

Volunteer workers for the relief of the wounded in the European war began work Monday on bandages and other hospital supplies, which are urgently needed to save lives in the great fight going on across the water. Headquarters will open at 7 South Front street on that date, and instructions in proper methods of handling supplies and material will be given.

Contributions are urgently desired by the Red Cross Division of the Home and War Relief Association, that the work may be prosecuted with speed. Conditions of the war victims on the battlefields are described as unbearable by witnesses. Surgical and medical aid is needed by all the combatants.

Unsatisfactory conditions in many of the hospitals, which are crowded with the wounded and sick, are proving greater menaces than the shells and bullets. Lack of proper material is shown by the report that in some hospitals the surgeons are packing wounds with sawdust instead of medicated gauze or cotton.

Some idea of what even small sums of money will accomplish in the way of life-saving is given in a statement showing the expenditure of 50 cents: One cent will buy iodine to disinfect a wound.

Five cents will buy the bandages. Eight cents will pay for the temporary splint. Ten cents will provide chloroform for the operation.

Twenty-five cents may save a limb or a life. Persons may contribute to any country's relief they may desire, and the money will be spent as designated.

The "nurses" who ministered to the big audiences at the Orpheum yesterday brought in just $48.70 by their activities.

STORM TO BREAK UP COLD WAVE TOMORROW

Rain or Snow Forecast; "Hoar Frost" Mantles City in White

The cold wave that has gripped Harrisburg will be broken tomorrow by a snow or rain storm from the west, according to weather forecasts issued this morning. Warmer weather will soon prevail over the entire United States, but there is a possibility of a heavy snowstorm in this section of the country.

Great clouds of fog covered this city this morning and under a temperature of 5 degrees the moisture fell in flakes form. Points outside the fog belt showed temperatures from 5 to 8 degrees below zero. The fine snow, or Scottish mist, or hoar frost, that fell this morning covered the ground to a depth of a nearly a quarter of an inch.

Pittsburgh also reported heavy fogs, causing darkness over the entire city. Lights in residence and office buildings were burning as late as 10 o'clock.

The weather map issued this morning by E. R. Demain shows that the special river stations at Towanda, Pa., registered a temperature of 29 degrees below zero last night. The river is now frozen at Huntingdon, Clearfield, Renovo, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Towanda, and Harrisburg.
