SISTER IDENTIFIES "TRAMP EVANGELIST"

Thomas Veale Lyne, Who Died at Carlisle, Labored Among Vagrants

Special to The Telegraph. Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 18.—Just one month after his death and burial here, efforts on the part of relatives to locate Thomas Veale Lyne, at one time a prominent Philadelphia druggist, and who for ten years labored as an evangelist among the vagrants in their quarters at the Carlisle jail, were successful, when a letter was received from a sister living in Alabama asking that her brother come to her home there.

Although he kept a diary of his wanderings from the time that, under the influence of liquor, he gave up his home at Philadelphia and became a wanderer, no mention was made as to relatives, so that when Lyne died here nothing was done to locate possible survivors.

A letter from a friend here telling of the interesting history of the man and giving his name was received by a friend of the man's sister and through it an identity established. The sister, Mrs. William Lyne Lazarus, of Auburn, Lee county, Ala., is the only relative.

Lyne, who was known as the "Tramp Evangelist," had an interesting history. He served enlistments in both the United States and English navies and visited all parts of the world. He came to Carlisle about twelve years ago and was committed to the local jail as a vagrant. Later he was converted and became a member of the First Presbyterian Church. Following his conversion he began systematic evangelistic work among his fellow prisoners which met with considerable success. Efforts to have the man leave the jail were useless, as he said that he felt that the best way he could spend the remainder of his life was "in helping the fallen as he had been helped." He was about 70 years old at the time of his death.

Bully Fine! Corns Go For All Time.

All that blistering pain will go, all your toe-pinched suffering will end, every sign of a foot lump, callous or corn will disappear once you paint on that reliable old remedy, Putnam's Corn Extractor. It's simply a marvel, the wonder of the day, the surprise of every thinking man the way it painlessly lifts out a corn. You can't beat Putnam's—that's sure. Sold by dealers everywhere in 25c bottles and by C. M. Forney.—Advertisement.

BIG CAMPAIGN AT CARLISLE PLANNED

Cottage Prayer Meetings Preliminary to Evangelistic Services

Special to The Telegraph. Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 18.—Following a month of cottage prayer meetings, which have constituted a preliminary work, a monster evangelistic and "clean up" campaign will be inaugurated in Carlisle with an all-day prayer service on January 1. The campaign will continue for three weeks and all of the churches are assisting in the arrangements.

The service on New Year's Day will last from 6 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening, ministers from twelve of the churches of the town having charge of the service for an hour each. The campaign proper will be opened on January 3, with another meeting in the First Lutheran Church, the largest sacred edifice in the town.

No foreign evangelist will be here for the meetings, but the sermons will be preached by local ministers who are interested in the work, and the gatherings will be held in the various churches.

FINE SKATING AT DAUPHIN

Special to The Telegraph. Dauphin, Pa., Dec. 18.—Exceptionally fine skating is being enjoyed here on the dam and pond by the young boys as well as some of the older ones. Last night a bonfire was kept burning brightly on the bank of the dam, which was enjoyed by many skaters.

CHRISTMAS TREE SUPPLY

Special to The Telegraph. Annville, Pa., Dec. 18.—Mountains to the south of Annville will furnish thousands of Christmas trees to the dealers in this section of the country. It has been the custom in former years to import the trees from other States, but it has been found to be more economical to use the county's home trees.

Children whom Santa may miss are requested to write letters to Santa Claus in care of the mission.

BANQUET FOR EMPLOYEES

Columbia Manufacturer Shows Appreciation of Services
Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., Dec. 18.—William H. Lucas, proprietor of the Triumph Manufacturing Company, one of the busiest industries in the borough, last night gave a complimentary banquet and entertainment in Keystone Hall in honor of the more than 100 employees of his plant. For the first time in his history the town saw such an entertainment as given as a mark of appreciation of the services of the employes, the musical and literary program being contributed by the employees. Mrs. C. E. Geiser was soloist; there was a recitation by Miss Pauline Yentzer and a vocal duet by Misses Emma and Marie Ziegler; Miss Doris Leisy gave the closing recitation; and Major E. C. Shannon, superintendent of the plant, led the employes' choir; Miss Anna Heim was accompanist and a cornet duet was rendered by Messrs. Eicherly and Harms. An elaborate banquet followed the entertainment.

"WISDOM OF SOLOMON"

Levistown, Pa., Dec. 18.—In a charge of chicken stealing at Burdett, Squire Dan McWilliams used the wisdom of Solomon in solving the guilt of the accused. Five pullets were stolen from the yard of Mrs. M. Archee and they were located in the yard of Adam Sinsky. The justice ordered the gate of Sinsky's yard left open, so as the chickens could go where they pleased. Once the chickens were set at liberty, they made a run for the yard of Mrs. Archee. Squire McWilliams thought this sufficient evidence that the chickens belonged there, so he held the man for court.

City's Christmas Tree Cut This Afternoon

Under the direction of Robert H. Hoy, chairman, the Municipal Christmas tree was cut this afternoon. In company with Chairman Hoy were Mayor John K. His original bill was for 106 days of six hours each.

Quality! Not Premiums

The cost of the tobaccos in Camel Cigarettes prohibits the use of premiums and coupons. Camels are a blend of choice quality Turkish and domestic tobaccos. Smoke smooth and even and leave you scot-free of any cigarette's aftertaste. Camels are 20 for 10 cents, and you can't buy a more satisfying cigarette at any price. Stake a dime against a package to-day.

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for one package or $1.00 for a carton of ten packages (200 cigarettes), postage prepaid. After smoking one package, if you don't find CAMELS as represented, return the other nine packages and we will refund your money.
