

BRUMBAUGH WILL BE JUST ONE OF US

Governor-elect Taking a Big Interest in His Forthcoming Residence in This City

THE INAUGURAL PLANS Senator Beidleman Will Probably Be the Man in Charge of the Big Ceremonies

According to what Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Governor-elect, has told men active in politics and connected with the State government, he is looking forward to the time when he will take up his residence in Harrisburg. For the new Governor plans to be one of the Harrisburg people, just as in his service as superintendent of the schools of Philadelphia he was of Philadelphia.

When the Governor-elect takes up the burdens of preparing for his new office on New Year's day he will also give some attention to the details of his inauguration. It is probable that he will select the chief marshal and have more or less to say about the features of the program. Likewise, he will name one of his own faith to offer the prayer on the west front of the Capitol on the day he takes his oath of office.

The presence of Dr. Brumbaugh at the State Education Association meeting here next week is expected to add much interest to the gathering which will be a notable affair. The doctor is a former president of the association and the first schoolmaster governor, the first to step from the educator's chair to that of the State executive. Some inkling of his policy in regard to education, especially rural education, can be expected.

Detroit Business and Professional Men Sell Newspapers For Charity

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 21.—More than seventy business and professional men of Detroit who once were newboys were ready to resume their youthful occupation to raise money to be devoted to Christmas charity. Headed by James Brady, collector of internal revenue in this district, the "newsies" were detailed to the street corners, where they cried their papers thirty or forty years ago.

In order that the regular boys should lose nothing arrangements were made to purchase papers from them at the customary retail rates. Among the volunteers who offered their services to the cause were two physicians, a judge, an alderman, banker and a large number of merchants and manufacturers.

GET CHRISTMAS CHURCH NOTICES IN EARLY

All notices of Christmas services must reach the Telegraph not later than 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Because of the length of the musical programs, the earlier in the week such programs reach the office the better.

BEGIN DEMOLITION OF BIG TABERNACLE

Sawdust May Be Sold to Mechanicsburg Evangelistic Campaign Managers

STOUGH PURSE TOTALS $5,300 7,000 Hit Trail During 7 Weeks Revival; May Be Permanent Organization

The demolishing of the tabernacle, where 7,000 persons of Harrisburg have made a new and open confession of Christ and where thousands more have received impulses toward a better life, was begun this morning when the plumbers started to tear out the heating system.

Work will progress as rapidly as possible on the dismantling of the entire building. The lumber belongs to Bogar and Company, who supplied the entire quantity needed for $3,500 with a contract for the possession of all material which they can save.

Little or no salvage will be obtained by the campaign management, and neither will any expense be incurred by the demolition of the building, as all contracts were made with provision for tearing down and surrender of the materials.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT FILLS WHOLE CITY

Santa Claus "Lieutenants" Already Busy Spreading Gospel of Good Cheer

The poor and needy of the city and its suburbs need not worry about their Christmas dinners.

Never in Harrisburg's history has the spirit of Christmas— that real spirit of good will toward men— been so pronounced as it is to-day. In every charity organization office, in every church, Christian Endeavor society and Sunday school, in hundreds of homes, preparations are being made to take care of those who are without the good things that prosperity brings.

Harrisburg's Salvation Army, the Associated Charities, the Penn State Harrisburg Club, the Stevens Church Sunday School— these are just a few of the Santa Claus lieutenants who are already busy spreading the gospel of good cheer in a substantial way.

Christmas cheer and happiness will be distributed to many a destitute home on Allison Hill because of the bounty of the people of E. F. Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, who yesterday held a record-breaking "gift day" in accordance with their annual custom.

Stacked high in front of a large Christmas tree on the altar platform this morning are enough provisions to fill a wagon.

The "gift day" exercises followed the Sunday school services. As the name of each class was called the members walked to the altar and placed their gifts of love and cheer in front of the big tree— gifts of love unto the "least of these."

Canned goods, vegetables, flour, fruit, jellies were contributed. Four barrels of flour and one barrel of cornmeal were among the staple articles given. The gifts will be sorted, placed in baskets and delivered by a committee to-morrow and Wednesday afternoon.

"PENNSY" WANTED TO COMPROMISE RATES

Letter From Interstate Commerce Commission Tells of Company's Intentions

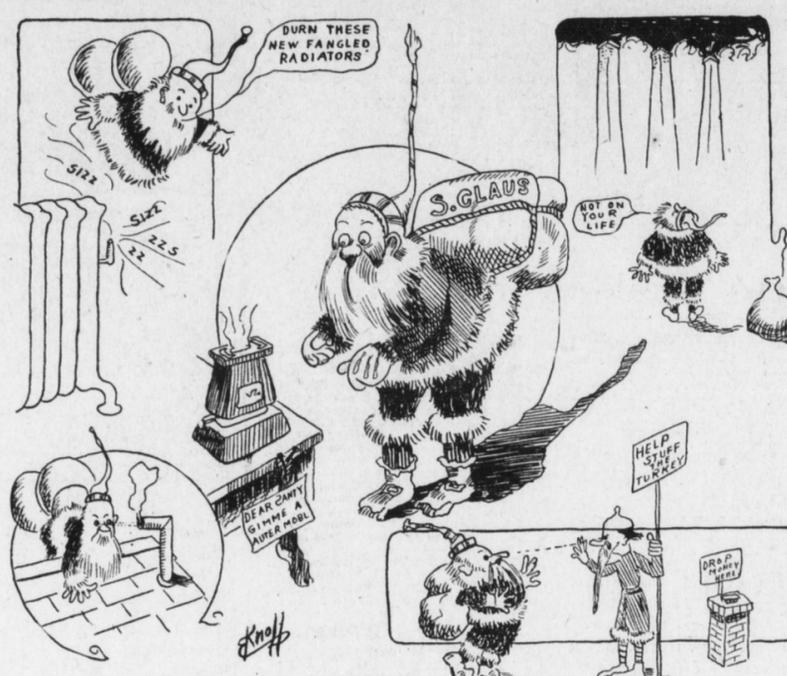

Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—Counsel for the commuters on the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Reading railroads who are dissatisfied with the passenger rate decision recently announced received a letter to-day from the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington which disclosed that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on December 4 wrote to the commission and asked permission to grant compromise rates to the commuters.

This was a week before the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, which investigated the complaint of the commuters, announced its findings. The offer of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was identical with the state commission's decision except that the railroad offered to make 100-trip tickets good for a year whereas the state commission set the term of the ticket to six months.

The commuters a few days ago were granted rehearings. It is held that its findings were not justified.

MUNICIPAL TREE SINGERS MEET FOR REHEARSAL Professor Edwin J. Professor Rose will have charge of the school children and the music this year from all sources is expected to be delightful in the extreme.

ROSEGARDEN OWNER GIVES HIMSELF UP

Angelo Boschelli Fined $1,300 and Costs on 10 Different Counts

Gaunt and broken with disease, Angelo A. Boschelli, one-time proprietor of the famous "Rosegarden" of the Hotel Menger and a fugitive from justice since last March, appeared in the Dauphin county court this morning and pleaded guilty to ten charges growing out of his failure to properly conduct the notorious establishment for which the license was revoked nearly a year ago.

Fines aggregating $1,300 and costs which will approximate between $500 and $700 were imposed by President Judge George Kunkel.

The former hotelman was taken in custody by the sheriff pending the search by friends for the nearly $2,000 that will be required to keep him out of prison. If the money cannot be produced Boschelli will likely spend his Christmas in the Dauphin county jail.

Boschelli was accused at the same time Jacob Eckert was arraigned for conducting the beer garden of the Hotel Essex, the old "Whitehall" in a similar manner. Eckert pleaded guilty and his fines and costs totaled more than a thousand dollars. The Hotel Essex license was revoked at the same time the court entered a similar decree for the Hotel Menger.

The "Rosegarden" proprietor, however, didn't appear when called for trial and his bondsman was required to forfeit the sum, $2,000. The bondsman, M. P. Johnson, by the way, preferred a charge of forgery against Boschelli.

Boschelli was finally located in a Chicago hospital suffering, it was said, [Continued on Page 9]

SNAPPING WIRES HOLD UP TRAFFIC

Thousands of Men Stranded on Cars Made Late For Work

Early this morning service was delayed for a short time on the Hill and uptown lines of the Harrisburg Railways Company, when wires snapped at Cameron and Market streets and at Third and Walnut streets. Thousands of men were late for work as a result.

The snow and sleet that fell made a thick coating of ice on the wires and the trolley cut them when the cars passed the weak points. The breaks were repaired quickly and by 8 o'clock nearly all the cars were running on schedule time. No trouble was reported concerning the suburban lines.

The telegraph and telephone companies of the city reported that no damage of any importance had been done to the wires in the city and to outlying districts.

Clock Hands Frozen The hands of the clock on the Telegraph Building were frozen together, pointing it out of service temporarily. One man missed his train thinking that the clock was working.

E. R. Demain, local weather forecaster, said this morning that the clouds are broken and cold to-night and to-morrow and predicted a break in the clouds by sunset to-day.

THAW ORDERED BACK TO NEW YORK STATE

Supreme Court Reverses Decision of Federal Court in New Hampshire

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—The Supreme Court to-day reversed the refusal of the Federal Court in New Hampshire to extradite Harry K. Thaw to New York.

The effect of to-day's decision is to cause the extradition of Thaw from New Hampshire to New York at once.

On August 17, 1913, Thaw escaped from the Mattawan insane hospital in New York, where he had been confined after two trials for the murder of Stanford White. Charged with a conspiracy to escape, he was finally arrested in New Hampshire. He was indicted in New York on that charge and application for his extradition was made to New Hampshire.

Extradition was ordered by the Governor of New Hampshire, but on habeas corpus proceedings in the Federal District Court, Judge Aldrich held Thaw should be released.

Justice Holmes announced the court's unanimous decision to-day. He first overruled the contention that it was not a crime for a man confined in an insane asylum of walk out if he could and that, therefore, a conspiracy to do so was not a crime.

"We do not regard it as open to debate, that the withdrawal, by complicity of a man from an insane asylum to which he had been committed as Thaw was did tend to obstruct the due administration of the law, at least the New York courts may so decide. Therefore, the indictment charges a crime."

"In extradition proceedings, even when, as here, an opportunity is afforded to the accused to be heard, [Continued on Page 5]

High School Girls to Be Guests at Boxing and Wrestling Bouts

Boston, Mass., Dec. 21.—Girl students in the Waltham high school are to be spectators at boxing and wrestling bouts staged weekly in the school gymnasium in spite of a storm of protests from parents.

Starting with the new term in January, bouts will be held every Friday afternoon among boy students. The protest came before the school committee, but no action was taken. Superintendent William D. Parkinson said to-day he would not order the exhibitions stopped.

"I have full confidence in the athletic instructor, Harry Dame," said he, "and if he sees fit to include wrestling and boxing in his instruction I see no reason for interfering. Boxing is a manly sport and will help keep the boys in condition for baseball and football. It is up to the girls or their parents to decide whether the girls shall see the exhibitions."

New Fashion Bulletin Decreases the Passing of Shirtwaist Girl in 1915

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 21.—Winter has only fairly arrived, but the Fashion Art League of America, a combination of manufacturers and dealers of the East and West, which means to set American styles and set Paris so hard, is out with a bulletin as to what women shall wear next summer.

It decrees the passing of the shirtwaist girl. The new frock is to be all in one piece, and must have a high stock collar.

"Women of fashion," says the bulletin, "are showing preference for the robe à la one, and it is destined to great popularity. The smartest style will be in white, though shades may be worn. The shirtwaist has outlived its popularity. The high stock collar will be decided evidence again this spring, but that is only another fashion caprice which demands a low neck for fall and winter and high neck for spring and summer."

Plans For Municipal Celebration of Yuletide Will Soon Be Complete

Harrisburg's Municipal Christmas tree was delivered to Robert H. Hoy this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. It was three hours in transit from Dauphin to Harrisburg. The tree was unloaded at Front and Market streets and will be erected at once.

At a meeting of the committee at the Mayor's office to-night the program to be observed Christmas eve will be arranged.

Couple Didn't Want to Be Scolded For Losing $50,000 Worth of Jewels

New York, Dec. 21.—The $50,000 worth of jewels lost here recently by a Chicago bride, have been returned, the advertised reward of $2,000 has been paid, no questions were asked and the incident is closed, according to announcement made to-day by the manager of a hotel where the couple were staying. Their identity still remains secret, the only new clue being the statement that they motored here from Chicago on their honeymoon trip.

Although no questions were asked of the finder of the jewels, the information was volunteered that the bride dropped the jewel case as she entered her automobile upon leaving the theater and that the finder picked up the case containing the jewels, read of the advertisement and returned them.

ALLIES MAKE ATTEMPT TO PUSH BACK ENTIRE GERMAN LINE IN WEST

General Movement Started But Kaiser's Forces Are Resisting With Determination; Battle in Poland Rages Without Decisive Result; Bombardment of Dardanelles Reported; Italy Threatens Rupture of Diplomatic Relations With Turkey

The heaviest fighting in the West since the Germans made their attempt to force a way to the English Channel is now in progress. The French and German statements of to-day show that yesterday's engagements were contested keenly along most of the front from Alsace to Flanders and on each side claims are made of the capture of trenches and other victories of importance.

The German war office gave out what was described as a French army order signed by General Joffre and General Foch, calling for a general attack on the Germans. The order recites that heavy reinforcements had been received by the allies and "it is now our business to clear the fatherland of the invaders."

In Poland the Russians are offering determined resistance to the German armies which are advancing on Warsaw. Less than thirty miles from the city one of the most stubbornly contested battles of the campaign is still in progress. The Russians for three days having held in check the German column which is seeking to force a passage of the Bzura river.

Emperor Goes to Front Emperor William's departure for the front, announced yesterday, is said to have been decided upon against the advice of his physician notwithstanding his improvement in health. The emperor desires to spend Christmas with his troops.

The operations of the allies in Flanders, for a long period of sporadic fighting at detached points, apparently have now assumed the character of a general movement in an attempt to press back the entire western end of the German line. The latest French official statements say that appreciable gains have been made, although it is admitted that the Germans are resisting with determination. It is reported from London, but not confirmed, that the Germans have evacuated Dismude.

Germans Closing In In Poland the Germans continue to close in on Warsaw, forcing their wedge nearer to the city. They have reached the Russian position on the Bzura river and are less than thirty miles from Warsaw. Heavy Russian reinforcements are being dispatched to the front, and undoubtedly severe fighting is in progress to-day. Petrograd reports that the Germans have sustained great losses in their attempts to reach Warsaw, while General Von Hindenburg states that the casualties among the Russians are enormous.

The allied fleet is reported to have begun a bombardment of the Dardanelles last Saturday. Nothing is yet known of the result. The allies probably could assemble a powerful fleet in the Mediterranean for this purpose.

The French Parliament will sit in Paris to-morrow. About 200 members are serving with the colors, but are returning from the front to attend the session.

It is reported that Italy has threatened a rupture of diplomatic relations with Turkey unless a satisfactory explanation is made of the threatening attitude toward Tripoli of 4,000 Arabs under Turkish and German officers.

ALLIANCE MAY BE FORMED Petrograd, via London, Dec. 21, 1:48 P. M.—The Russian press is confident that the formation of a Scandinavian triple alliance may be announced at any time now as the result of the conference at Malmoe, Sweden, last week of King Haakon, King Gustave and King Christian.

PROHIBITION QUESTION WILL BE TAKEN UP TO-MORROW Washington, D. OPEN BIDS FOR PARK LIGHTS

Bids for furnishing 52 park light standards, for service between Rely and Maclay streets, Faxton street and Iron alley, the Twelfth street playgrounds, were opened this afternoon by City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor. The Harrisburg Light and Power Company offered to install the standards at cost; the Elmer P. Morris Iron Works of New York bid $11.46 on seven poles with junction boxes, $3.46 without boxes; alternate bid $9.20 per pole with fifty-cents extra for boxes; second alternate $12.50 with 50 cents additional for boxes. The difference in prices is gauged by the style and quality of standard.

COHENS PLEADS NOT GUILTY

New York, Dec. 21.—Joseph and Jacob Cohen, brothers pleaded not guilty to-day to indictments growing out of the grand jury investigation into the murder of Barnett Baff, a wealthy dealer in poultry. The Cohens who hold contracts for the unloading of poultry in the New Jersey railroad yards, are charged with assault upon Allen T. Pearson, a business associate of Baff.

ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP PAYMASTER

New York Dec. 21.—Four highwaymen to-day knocked down Maurice Lieberman, paymaster of the Star Pleating Company and tried to take away a week's pay roll $3,000. Detectives heard Lieberman's cries and rushes to his rescue. The four highwaymen were arrested.
