is the gospel of Jesus Christ and his earnest appeal brought a big response of men who wanted to take advantage of the last chance of the campaign to hit the trail.

After first asking all men who had hit the trail, he called those who desired to lead a better life to stand up and then to come to the front and grasp his hand and sign the confession cards. The result was 243 new converts.

The Rev. John H. Daugherty, of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, conducted the evening collection and proved his worth by extracting more than $2,200 in envelopes and pledges alone, after which the pan collectors raised the total to about $2,250.

Choir Gave $1,000

The choir alone gave $688, which placed in the hands of Professor Spooner a dangerous weapon against the pockets of the 9,000 people in the main audience. Whenever the general responses lagged, Professor Spooner spurred them by matching some amount, twenty-fives, tens or fives against an equal sum from the other side of the platform. He kept everyone guessing where he got his pledges so rapidly but always succeeded in bringing the desired impulse to the giving. After the collection he told of the private subscription of the choir, which, with the amounts given individually and collectively at the other services, totaled more than $1,000 for their share.

He himself was surprised by a string of 100 new dollar bills as a personal appreciation from the chorus. E. P. Erwin, the pianist, was also remembered by a substantial gift.

It was 9:15 when Dr. Stough began preaching his sermon to the trail hitters and all professing Christians on the text, "But grow in grace in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ."

What Christians Must Learn and Do

He compared the convert to a new baby in its struggles to walk and to learn the ways of the world and he said that although a Christian, like a child, may fall down a thousand times, he must get up a thousand times and try again.

He emphasized the following necessary points in the new Christian's life: "Be baptized and unite with the church of your choice as a part of the public confession and confess Christ on every opportunity among both friends and unbelievers; to avoid backsliding; attend all services of the church, especially the midweek prayer meeting and an active part; read your Bible daily; pray night and day; give of your money, time and talent for the advancement of Christ; and last, be not discouraged at failure, but ask forgiveness and start again."

Renounce Worldly Amusements

He advised the renunciation of worldly amusements, card playing, the dance, the theater. To those who have been used to such things he advised possibly find it hard to give them up he advised the study of a book published by the Christian Endeavor Society on "250 Ways to Spend an Evening."

He spoke strongly against the use of tobacco. "A man has no right to stick this dirty thing in his system. Whenever the temptation to smoking cigarettes, the country is getting far on the road to hell; but I don't see why they can't use tobacco just as well as the men."

He advised the study of the Bible with a concordance and a Bible textbook. Cheerful giving, he said, is a part of a Christian's life and he strongly urged the giving of each income devoted to a "bank for the Lord," saying that it always comes back many fold to the giver.

The Last Eighty-six

The last words of the sermon were to the unconverted as a final appeal to hit the trail and they succeeded in bringing eighty-six persons to the front benches, raising out over 7,000 for the seven weeks' campaign.

The entire day was a fitting close to a successful campaign. When Dr. Stough announced his last sermon in Harrisburg a chorus of singing came from all parts of the building, which indicated the true feeling for the evangelist and his efforts in the city.

Dr. Stough said he will make another appearance here on February 1, when he will speak at the Chestnut Street Hall in behalf of the State convention of the Anti-Saloon League in its efforts to secure legislation toward local option in Pennsylvania. His announcement was greeted by long applause and the waving of thousands of handkerchiefs in a chauntauqua salute.

1,248 Women Hit Trail

The Saturday afternoon women's mass meeting was the most remarkable of the series and showed the accumulated work of six weeks. Dr. Stough remarked after his address that he had not called for confessions from the women during the six weeks because he desired them to get the full benefit of his personal talks without feeling that they were subjected to any religious persecution.

After asking for responses from those women who had hit the trail at the evening services he further asked how many had secretly hit the trail in their hearts and resulted in lead better lives as a result of the meetings. The surprising response to this call was 1,248 women, who promptly stood up and surged forward to sign the confession cards.

7,000 Hit Trail During Seven Weeks Campaign; Stough Given $5,300

The lights are out on the sawdust trail after a midnight wind-up yesterday in which an even total of 7,000 trail hitters was summed up and a free will offering of approximately $5,300 was raised.

Dr. Henry W. Stough and his party of workers.

When the evangelist began his sermon last night before the biggest audience of the seven weeks he had 6,914 trail hitters on the records and he kept the service running until he got the full number he wanted at 11:30 o'clock. After the prayer of confession and experiences of the trailers were heard the final touch to the campaign was given by the distribution of the card souvenirs from the party to the trail hitters and the words of cheer and thanks from the members of the executive committee and the ministers of the co-operating churches.

Dr. Stough Leaves for Home

The greater part of each service yesterday was taken up by gathering the subscriptions and urging the audiences by local ministers. Beginning with calls for large amounts, they worked down to the dollar subscriptions, after which the pans were passed for the silver offerings. There were four gifts of $100, several fifties, almost a score of twenty-fives, dozens of tens and hundreds of five-dollar bills. The one-dollar bills flowed in so fast that the collectors were swamped with them and could not take time to read the names on the envelopes as was done with the larger gifts which came in more slowly at the beginning of the collection.

The bulk of the offerings made from the pan collections was made in special envelopes with a space for the signature of the donor. Those persons who did not have the cash with them marked the amounts of their pledges on the envelopes with the understanding that they are to pay at the Dauphin Deposit Trust Company on or before January 2.

$1,700 Raised in Morning

At the morning service out of an audience of about 4,000 the thank offering was approximately $1,700, about half of which came in envelopes and pledges and the remainder in the pan collections. Only dollars and larger sums came in the envelopes.

The Rev. E. E. Curtis, who conducted the collection, was kept busy reading the names after the smaller amounts began to come in. In his remarks he enumerated the great results of the campaign—the large local budget of almost $20,000, the host of new-made Christians and the "whole town made topsy-turvy in order that it might be remade right side up." He compared Dr. Stough as a preacher to the best in American and Europe, calling him the equal, if not the peer, of any he (Mr. Curtis) had heard in his ministerial career of seventeen years.

Dr. Stough did not arrive at the tabernacle until 11:45, when he began his sermon on "The Seal of the Holy Spirit" and his message to the heart of the church.

Yates Perspires Raising Coin

At the afternoon men's meeting the Rev. W. N. Yates shouted out to the crowd of 6,000 what they ought to do in the way of remuneration of Dr. Stough. He made himself perspire for almost an hour, which time the money came in tens, fives and one dollars faster than he could count. The Rev. E. E. Curtis assisted him part of the time to grab the bills and Professor Spooner cooled him with a fan. The total of this service was about $1,100.

The boosters made their final appearance and sang special songs in honor of Dr. Stough and Professor Spooner.

Just before their dismissal they presented Spooner with a tin horn containing some money and Mr. Irwin, the pianist, with a jumping-jack bearing a bill or two. Their singing of "Three Cheers for the Red, White and Blue" was taken up by the men in the audience with hearty shouts and waving of handkerchiefs and hats.

Back of the Sensationalism

At the opening of his address Dr. Stough made a short review of his seven weeks' work and said that although his sensational preaching was criticized by many, yet back of his methods has been a great purpose—the hearty passion to bring men to the kingdom of Christ.

His short address was a message to men who are bowed down and crushed by the octopus of sin, the victims of drunks, passion, selfishness, cruelty or unkind and brutal hearts. He declared the great help at hand forded to test them upon habeas corpus, the purpose of the writ is not to substitute the judgment of another tribunal upon the facts or the law of the matter to be tried.

THAW ORDERED BACK TO NEW YORK STATE

"The statute that declares an act done by a lunatic not a crime, adds that a person is not excused from criminal liability except upon proof that at the time he was laboring under such defect of reason as: 1. Not to know the nature and quality of the act he was doing; or, 2. Not to know that the act was wrong.

"The inmates of lunatic asylums are largely governed, it has been remarked, by appeal to the same motives that govern other men, and it well might be that a man who was insane and dangerous nevertheless, in many directions, understood the nature and quality of his acts as well, and was open to be affected by the motives of the criminal law as any body else.

"How far such considerations shall be taken into account, it is for the New York courts to decide.

"We regard it as too clear for lengthy discussion that Thaw should be delivered at once."

THAW REFUSES TO COMMENT OF SUPREME COURT DECISION

By Associated Press
Manchester, N. H., Dec. 21.—Harry K. Thaw received without comment today the announcement from Washington that the Supreme Court had reversed the decision of the Federal Court in New Hampshire which refused to extradite him to New York.

His secretary, speaking for him, after manifesting surprise, said: "Mr. Thaw has no comment to make. Any statement regarding the court's action will have to come from his counsel, Philander C. Fox, in whom Mr. Thaw has every confidence."

Thaw received the news through a press dispatch. He has been stopping in this city for the past three months.
