

POOR WOMEN SIT UP NIGHTS SEWING

Relief Work Giving Dozens Opportunity to Earn an Honest Penny

The worth of the work which the Home and War Relief Association, 7 South Front street, is giving to needy women of the city was emphasized yesterday by one woman who brought back her quota of finished garments.

"I sat up half the night to finish them," she explained when Miss Mary Rely, who was on duty during the morning period at the Home Relief headquarters, questioned her. "I needed the money."

"You'll have it for Christmas?" queried Miss Rely, but the woman shook her head "no."

"I needed that money for my bare living," the worker answered as she gathered up the new lot of unsewn garments issued her.

Others of the workers told of their haste to finish their work early that they might secure the much-needed money. One woman, whose husband is in jail, and who has five small children to support, took home enough work to allow her to make ends meet for this week, at least, when finished, according to Mrs. R. C. Williams, of the Home Relief division.

Others have volunteered to devote two days' time each week to rolling bandages and making other supplies for war victims. The Red Cross division received a check for $11 from the "Tadpoles," a class of boys from the Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday School.

Merced B. Tate, Jr., president of the "Tadpoles," of Pine Street church, brought a check for $11, representing part of a Christmas tree the boys gave up to buy milk for starving Belgian babies.

Headquarters close this evening at 5 until Monday morning at 9 o'clock for the Christmas holiday.

Former Carlisle Indian School Student Arrested For Robbing Sick Woman

Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 23.—Thomas Twin, a former student at the Carlisle Indian School, was today identified as one of the men who brutally assaulted aged Mrs. Lydia Lewis on Monday night at her home in North Pitt street.

Twin left the Indian School about five years ago. He came here from Harrisburg, where it was reported he had hit the trail at a Stough evangelistic meeting. He said he received $200 from a brother in Nebraska and would return to the West after the Christmas holidays.

At noon today Mrs. Lewis' condition was reported to have improved, and Twin was taken before her. The woman, a revolver at her head, demanded the key to her trunk, in which the money was kept. After opening the trunk the men took $20 and departed.

DETECTIVES KNEW BOMB WAS PLACED ON FRENCH LINER

New York, Dec. 23.—The existence of an alleged conspiracy in New Orleans to blow up a French Line passenger ship on the sea by placing an infernal machine in her cargo before she should sail from New York was known twelve days ago to Paul Fugate, general agent of the French Line, according to an announcement made here today.

A small army of detectives was employed to prevent the success of the scheme, every bit of baggage and cargo going into the French Line ship was closely examined and the proper authorities, Mr. Fasnet said, were promptly notified. It was said, however, that it was this notification which resulted in the arrest of the four men in New Orleans last night.

MEADE MEMORIAL BILL GOES THROUGH

Congressman Kreider Gets Measure Passed Providing For Erection of Statue

The bill providing a site for the erection of a memorial statue in honor and to the memory of the late Major General George Gordon Meade, for which purpose the Legislature of Pennsylvania had appropriated $30,000, has been passed by Congress.

There was considerable delay in the passage of this bill caused by a disposition on the part of the membership of the House of Representatives not to appropriate sites in the city of Washington, and especially when the bill does not contain a clause naming and specifying the exact place where said statue shall be erected.

Through the activities of Congressman Kreider at the solicitation of Colonel John B. Patrick, of Harrisburg, a member of the Meade Memorial Commission, this commission was enabled to secure a hearing before the Fine Arts Commission of the city of Washington and at the suggestion of Congressman Kreider a very desirable location was secured near the corner of Third street and Pennsylvania avenue, N. W., in close proximity to the statue of General Grant.

The bill, through the influence of Congressman Kreider, was amended specifying this location and was passed by the House.

Mr. Kreider has again proved himself to be the true friend of the soldier and his ability to do things in Congress. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic appreciate his assistance and influence in securing this location and the passage of the bill without which the probabilities are that the bill would not have passed at this session of Congress.

Changes Made in Staff of County Poor Physicians

Trullinger was appointed in the place made vacant by the resignation of Dr. E. E. Darlington, who quit the county's service as poor physician in the Tenth and Twelfth wards of the city because of his growing practice.

The poor board will meet on January 6, 1915, for reorganization for the year.

CASHTOWN DEER HUNTING CLUB BRINGS DOWN 8 FINE STAGS

CASHTOWN DEER CLUB CAMPS 23RD TIME

Hunters Bring Down Many a Fine Buck in Mountain Near Gettysburg

For twenty-three years the Cashtown Deer Hunting Club, shown in the photo above, has camped along the Pittsburgh pike midway between Gettysburg and Chambersburg. This club has the strongest membership of any hunting club in the mountains of Pennsylvania and this year was more fortunate than usual, bringing down eight fine specimens of the Pennsylvania stag.

The tents have been pitched on the same spot for sixteen years, on a tract owned by a member of the club, although the State forest reservation extends around the plot on three sides. Over sixty feet of canvas, made up of three large tents, one leading into the other, makes up the quarters of the hunters; the one tent being used as a kitchen and dining room and the other two tents used for sleeping quarters. Each tent is comfortably heated by a large wood stove and the appointments throughout serve to supply the substantial and necessary requirements of a life in the woods.

The hunting crews are well organized and both drivers and standers captained by old and reliable deer hunters. Once a buck is found between the two lines of this club, his chances for escape are slight.

The club membership is made up very largely of Adams county people, residing in Gettysburg, McKeights-town, Cashtown and the surrounding country. For many years President Judge S. Mac Swope, of Gettysburg, has been a member, the president of the club being George Schwartz, of Cashtown, who is president of the Citizens' Trust Company of Gettysburg.

Milton D. Plank is the only Harrisburg member of the club. The club is regularly organized and meetings are held at stated periods throughout the year at Cashtown, where the equipment is kept.

In the district where this camp is located and ranging over a territory of about sixteen miles are some fifteen established camps of deer clubs covering the locality from Pinegrove Furnace southwest to Mont Alto. The number of deer killed this year at these different camps is said to be close on to half a hundred. This itself is looked forward to by the members of the different clubs as an outing of fifteen days conducive to good health and enjoyment.

Mexicans Send Engine Running Uncontrolled Into Carranza's Train

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—The trip of General Carranza from Vera Cruz to the isthmus of Tehuantepec, said by his opponents to be a flight, was interrupted by Zapata forces, who captured Soledad and from there sent a locomotive running uncontrolled into his approaching train. Neither Carranza nor any of his party was injured.

These facts were reported last night in a private dispatch from a point on the railroad on which Carranza was traveling. Officials of the Washington Government placed full credence in the report, but declined to comment on it, saying that they had consulted their usual sources of information.

Carranza officials here deny emphatically suggestions which have been current in Mexico City that Carranza intended to flee to a Central American country. They say the first chief planned his trip to the isthmus shortly after the railway to that part of Mexico was taken over by the Carranza faction.

"Sawdust Cough" New Disease in This City

A number of cases of a new form of a throat irritation that has been christened the "sawdust cough" have been noticed in the city lately. The ailment is supposed to be a result of the fine particles raised from the sawdust on the floor of the Stough tabernacle and has been noticed particularly among the regular attendants at the services.

Dr. John F. Culp, noted throat specialist, when asked about the cough, said he had not treated any cases, but thought such a trouble might easily be attributed to breathing sawdust-laden air.

Kid Actors and Kid Audience at Orpheum

FLO BERT

Clever Juvenile Comedian in "The Dream Pirates"

Miss Flo Bert is one of the stunning "pirates" of the "Dream Pirates," the delightful juvenile musical comedy that is appearing at the Orpheum as a special holiday offering. This special feature along with the irresistible troupe of comedy dogs and monkeys that run their own town and plenty of other choice talent, is delighting patrons of the Orpheum immensely.

Also the children of Harrisburg's charitable institutions, almost two hundred of them, who attended the theater yesterday as the guests of the Orpheum management, seemed to be having the treat of their lives all during the performance. The children occupied especially reserved seats and sat in a body in the central part of the orchestra circle.—Advertisement.

Girls Cause Arrest of Father's Slayers

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 23.—William Montrose Alexander, a retired attorney, and a millionaire, was shot and killed early yesterday by one of two burglars whom he discovered in his home. W. M. Alexander, Jr., endeavoring to aid his father, was shot in the breast.

Alexander's two daughters, Penelope and Anna, rushed to their brother's aid and battered the burglars on the heads with silver-backed hairbrushes with such telling effect that the men fled, leaving their hats, shoes and socks on the lawn.

Glenn Witt and Ethelbert Oxman, who were seen by a woman to enter a house for medical attention for several scalp wounds, were arrested and are said by the police to have confessed. Oxman it was said, told that he shot and killed Alexander.

$3,500 MORE WANTED BY POOR DIRECTORS

County Board Makes Requisition For Additional Funds to Close Year

Dauphin county's Board of Poor Directors needs $3,500 more than the 1914 annual allowance for maintenance and care of the county's poor and indigent in order to wind up the accounts for the present year.

Application for the additional requisition was made today to the County Commissioners and that body took the request under consideration this afternoon. During the last two years, 1913 and 1914, the county poor board got along very nicely on $6,000 a year.

In asking for the additional requisition of $3,500, however, the poor board complains that the money is sadly needed—necessary, in fact, to get through the present month.

Incidentally the board points out that it expended something like $12,500 for repairs renovations, etc., at the almshouse. This included the installation of new flooring, a new heating system, and so on. The maintenance and care of children was, and is, according to the poor directors, an ever-growing expense.

While the additional requisition will mean that $63,500 will have been expended for the care and maintenance of the county's poor and indigent during 1914, it was explained at the poor directors' office that the appropriation asked for 1915 will be approximately $8,000 less than this year's request. The total that will likely be asked for next year will be $55,000 or $58,000.

The poor board explains that the new heating system, flooring, roofing, etc., at the almshouse were recommended by the grand jury.

WATCHFUL WAITING REDUCES DINNER COST

Late Buyers Got Turkeys and Other Fowl at Low Prices

Buyers in the local markets today who followed the "watchful waiting" policy were able to cut the cost of their Christmas dinner. Turkeys and all other kinds of fowls were a glut on the market. High prices prevailed at the opening of the markets for Christmas meats, but they took a tumble about 9 o'clock, and even with the decrease in prices, many fowls went back to the farms or into cold storage.

Early buyers paid 35 cents a pound for dressed turkeys and 24 cents for live weight. Between 8 and 9 o'clock dressed turkeys sold for 28 and 30 cents a pound, and as low as 21 cents a pound live weight.

There is little loss in taking live turkeys back to the farm, but the stalls were filled with thousands of dressed fowls, many of which were not sold. Many were offered in the streets at reduced prices and to hotel and restaurant owners at big losses.

Next to turkeys, geese and ducks were in demand. They could be bought from $1 to $2. When the prices dropped ducks were sold as low as 60 and 75 cents each, and geese as low as $1.50. Chickens brought from 50 to 90 cents each at the opening of the market, and later 35 to 75 cents. Guineas sold for 50 and 60 cents.
