MANY GREENS SOLD BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Roses Are Favorites of Cut Flowers; No Increase in Prices; Demand For Novelties

Moss Christmas trees about eight inches high, and basket vases filled with cut flowers are two of the Yuletide novelties being shown by Harrisburg florists. The amount of all kinds of greens sold this year during Christmas season is more than that of last or the preceding year, according to several dealers. There is a large supply of every kind of Christmas greens that purchasers could want. Among the potted plants the poinsettias, begonias and holly trees are the favorites. Red flowers of every kind, particularly roses, are the choice of the people who want cut varieties. The moss Christmas trees in little earthen pots are made of large pieces of moss, bound together to resemble a tree. The novelty will keep green all winter. The prices of all these decorations have not increased and are about the same as the prices of preceding years. Pine trees that are shipped here cost from seventy-five cents to four dollars, for the large and finest specimens. Holly trees range from eight to ten dollars. These are imported from England. Seventy-five cents is the lowest price for a begonia, and poinsettias may be had for one dollar. Holly and mistletoe wreaths are on sale in the streets, the former from ten cents up. Some large wreaths of the best holly are selling for thirty and thirty-five cents. Basket vases retail from $1.25 up, the majority of them sell at two dollars when filled with cut and prepared flowers. Cut flowers, such as roses and carnations range in price from $1.50 to $5 a dozen for the best grades. Many of these come from the large wholesale houses in Philadelphia, and any amount can be obtained by Harrisburg dealers to supply the demands. Roses and carnations are sold most to people who desire cut flowers. Many other flowers and plants are on sale, but the old-fashioned Christmas greens are the favorites of most of the people. Local dealers said that they were well pleased with the fine grade of holly and trees shipped to this city and that this year's supply was one of the best that they have ever offered to the public. Trees from this vicinity are much better this year according to the retailers and cost about twenty-five cents. Harry Von Tilzer Upsets All Theatrical Precedents The announcement of the return to the Majestic for two performances on Saturday, January 2, of "To-day," the much discussed drama, of contemporary New York life, with Edmond Breese and a company which supported him in New York and during the long runs "To-day" enjoyed in Boston and Philadelphia, calls attention to a situation unique in Harrisburg theatricals. Heretofore it has been the custom of the purveyors of theatrical attractions first to send here the "star," or "No. 1," company, as the case might be, leaving the return engagements to be played by the No. 2, 3 or 4 organizations. In this instance the contrary is the case. It remained for Harry von Tilzer, long known to fame as a man who put the muse in music and who directs the tours of the various "To-day" companies, to upset the usual order of things. In sending Mr. Breese to Harrisburg in a play which already has been seen here Mr. von Tilzer is breaking managerial precedent of many seasons' standing and local theatergoers will benefit thereby.—Advertisement. Bowman's Perfect Its Profit-sharing Plan; to Close Tomorrow at 6 For some months Bowman & Co. have been trying out the profit-sharing plan among their employees. The experiment has proved so successful that the firm has recently put into effect for another year a more perfected plan along the same lines that will have wider scope and afford more benefits than before. One member of the firm to-day said: "During the first year the idea was carried on in an experimental way. If was new and naturally there were little kinks in the system that developed from time to time, but these have all been overcome, and been valuable in helping us to perfect the plan. On the whole, however, the idea has proved so successful that we are continuing it for the coming year along still wider lines, which we believe will mean more to employes and firm than ever." Another feature of the Bowman store which was inaugurated last year, that of closing the store on Christmas eve, will again be observed this year, the store closing to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. MRS. EICHOITZ ENTERTAINS Special to The Telegraph Bowman's store, Pa., Dec. 23.—Mrs. Silas Eicholtz entertained her Sunday school class at her home on Thursday evening, December 17. The evening was spent very sociably and all enjoyed themselves very much. Luncheon was served to the following members of the class: Mrs. Silas Eicholtz, Mrs. Amos Miller, Mrs. E. W. Stouffer, Mrs. Frank Banner, Mrs. Edward Woods, Mrs. W. G. Eckels, Mrs. Reg. Emery, Mrs. Horace Hollinger, Mrs. Levi Woods, Mrs. Ira Anderson, Mrs. Jerry Weaver, Miss Beesie Kilmore. Other persons present were Miss Byrd

Goodheart, Miss Minnie Reeve, Silas Eicholtz, Amos Miller, E. W. Stouffer, Edward Woods, Frank Conner, Asa Lantz and Park Kilmore. CHICAGO RECORDS BROKEN Chicago, Ill., Dec. 23.—Christmas business at the Chicago post office is nearly double the amount of last year, according to announcement to-day by Postmaster Campbell. Parcel post packages totaling $35 tons were shipped out last Saturday and Monday as against 373 tons on the corresponding days last year. The figures established a new local tonnage record for outgoing packages.
