YOUNG JOE SHUGRUE WINS OVER WHITE

Chicago Boy Given Hardest Fight of His Career by New Yorker

Special to The Telegraph New York, Dec. 30.—Charlie White, the Chicago boy, lost to Young Shugrue on points at Madison Square Garden last night.

White was best man in the eighth round, and the first round was a draw. In all other rounds Shugrue was the aggressor. In the tenth White looked like a down and outer.

White towards the end of the fight fought with desperation. Outclassed during the early rounds, the Chicago boxer made a rally in the closing minutes of the battle, but Shugrue, with the fight proved only as collected, fended off his wild bull-like rushes and came to his win.

Shugrue keeps jabbing his opponent all the time. White showed the effect of the blows. Up to the eighth it looked as if White was a goner.

Sprung from his corner like a tiger in the eighth, White pounced upon Shugrue. His whirlwind rights shook the New Yorker's frame; his left jabs rocked Shugrue's head. He tried to produce a "knockout" but Shugrue was calm and again sidestepped the wild, frantic rushes. This round was undoubtedly White's. Shugrue held the Windy City boy at his distance in the ninth. The last round proved Shugrue a complete master of the situation, although White was the leader. The fight was Shugrue's. He fought harder, displayed better judgment and proved coolly and collectedly under the most trying circumstances.

Pink Slip for Gleason; Chicago Fans Kicking

Special to The Telegraph Chicago, Dec. 30.—Kid Gleason, who was a member of the Williamsport Tri-State outlay team, was yesterday given his unconditional release by the Chicago White Sox. This announcement started the fans kicking at Gleason as a "puncher" who had stepped the wild, frantic rushes. This round was undoubtedly White's. Shugrue held the Windy City boy at his distance in the ninth. The last round proved Shugrue a complete master of the situation, although White was the leader. The fight was Shugrue's. He fought harder, displayed better judgment and proved coolly and collectedly under the most trying circumstances.

FOOTBALL RULES ARE SATISFACTORY

Minor Changes May Come Later; One Fatality Reported by Committee

Special to The Telegraph Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30.—Football rule makers in session yesterday decided that no changes were necessary. A few minor details may be revised, but important alterations are not likely to be made.

Walter Camp, of Yale, attended the conference and discounted any idea of material change in the football rules. "The present rules have developed a game which allows full scope for individual excellence in the player," he said. "They are well understood by the public, they are thoroughly understood by the players and the sporting writers have grasped their every detail. Under those circumstances there seems to me to be no good reason for any material change." The report of the committee on football fatalities, showing that only one of the thirteen deaths accredited to football in the past year was of a trained college player, was accepted, but the recommendation of the committee that it would be discharged from further consideration was disregarded and instead the executive committee was empowered to consider the advisability of extending the work of the fatalities committee to include deaths from all forms of sports, including hunting, canoeing, swimming, baseball and skating, so that a definite defense might be made to the charge that football is a brutal sport.

TIGER HOCKEY TEAM WINS

Shows Best Work Over Cornell in Goal Shooting Special to The Telegraph New York, Dec. 30.—Scoring four goals before Cornell was able to net the puck, Princeton's hockey team gained a 4 to 1 victory over the Ithacans at the St. Nicholas rink last night in the first intercollegiate game of the season here. The Tigers got one goal in the first period and the other three early in the second session. Cornell got its lone tally near the end of the game. Princeton played a superior all-around brand of hockey and had the game won once the second half was well under way. Although they were able to score only once in the first half, the Tigers outplayed the up-staters in this session and came on with a rush early in the second half that was not to be denied.

THREE BROTHERS WHO ARE CHAMPION RUNNERS

LOUIS GORDON JIMMY LEE, Coach. FREELAND GORDON WILLEE GORDON

Quite the most remarkable athletic family in the world at the present time is found in Yonkers, N. Y.—the Gordons. Willie, Louis, and Freeland Gordon have been cutting great capers on the cinderpath of late. A year ago all were novices, but to-day Willie and Louis hold championships won in national competition, and Freeland is conceded to be ready for the honor, and far away the most promising runner of the three.

It's not a hard task to find three athletes in one family, but three brother champions at the middle distance game at the same time is indeed a rarity. Jimmy Lee, former Boston professional runner, who has coached the Gordon brothers from the time they broke their novices, figures that the three, at their best, would all finish within five yards in a three-quarter mile race. Willie holds the Baxter mile race from Abel Kiviat at the New York Athletic Club games last winter. He has a record of 4.21 for the mile, Louis has run the half mile in 1.57 and Freeland has a record of 4.23 for the mile.

Freeland, the most promising of the Gordons, has a style not just unlike that of John Paul Jones, the great Cornell runner. He runs with a long sweeping stride which with the proper development may make him one of the greatest milers this country has ever turned out. Just like Jones, too, Freeland Gordon, despite his wonderful natural ability, is not so keen for running. It has always been something of a task to get Freeland out to run. He's one of those fellows that possess great natural ability in a sport in which their interest is just a little more than lukewarm.

BISPHAM ON NEW YEAR'S NIGHT

New Year's night here will be marked by a concert by David Bispham, that most popular and genial of all singers, at the Majestic Theater. Bispham differs from the majority of singers in that it is his strong conviction that English is just as good a language to sing in as any other. He was one of the earliest pioneers in the movement for song in English, and he demonstrates the beauties of the English language by showing its capabilities. His concerts are usually interspersed with clever little talks and thrusts at the abuses of foreign languages and the absurdity of singing in them by singers, who do not perfectly understand them. The great majority of whom do not understand them at all. Mr. Bispham will be assisted by Francis Rogers, pianist.—Advertisement.

"TO-DAY"

Seats for "To-day," the vital and vivid drama of New York life by George Broadhurst and Abraham Schomer, which will be seen at the Majestic, Saturday matinee and night, go on sale tomorrow, at 9 a. m. "To-day" is said to unfold an extremely interesting and intensely dramatic story of contemporary New York life, and enjoys the enviable distinction of being the drama longest in the city and the longest in the theatrical year 1913-14, running the entire season at the Forty-eighth Street Theater. As theatergoers are urged for their possession of the play, it is but natural that the gowns shown in "To-day" represent the very latest word of the Parisian creator's art. "To-day" is interpreted by Edmund Bruce, and by the same company which supported him during the play's long runs in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.—Advertisement.

MOTION PICTURES OF EUROPEAN WAR

The Motion Pictures of the European War that are to be exhibited at the Majestic Theater, beginning Monday, for three days, are the most remarkable films that have ever been exhibited in Harrisburg. They show with eloquence the misery of war, as well as making clear the methods by which modern warfare is waged. One looks on while German shells work havoc in the streets of Ypres, and see the crowded squares of Antwerp. The advances and retreats of the Belgians, the crossing of bridges under heavy artillery fire, the digging of trenches in the face of a German advance, and the removal of dying and wounded soldiers by the Red Cross ambulances are among the vivid pictures of actual warfare. The flight of refugees from the various Belgian villages and from Antwerp are pitiful evidences of the horrible results of the present war.—Advertisement.

PALACE TODAY, "THE STORMS OF LIFE"

A land quarrel, a disowned son, a lost mother, a romance in a fishing village, a painting and a misunderstanding are the storms that disturb the elements in this Pacific drama of novel situations and strong character portrayals. "Fido's Dramatic Career," Fido, a dog of the streets, has a vision—he dreams that he is the pampered pet of the beautiful lady, whom he has seen previously leaving in her automobile. In his dream he encounters all the people who have been rough to him and meets out to them their just deserts—he has a wonderful time. This film in its entirety is played by animals.—Advertisement.

DON'T CUSS BALL! HINTS TAFT, GOLFER

Less Profanity, Better the Score, Declares Ex-President in Letter to Another Yale Prof.

Special to The Telegraph New Haven, Conn., Dec. 30.—Ex-President Taft yesterday, in a letter to another Yale professor, discusses profanity in connection with golf. Though an ardent golfer, Professor Taft is not ambitious to become an expert in the vocal branch of the game.

"I think golf is one of the greatest games for the promotion of the health of men of over 45 that I know of," he wrote. "It is an admirable form of exercise; it is consistent with social enjoyment; it trains one in self-restraint; it introduces one to nature in its most attractive form, and it has no bad results, except that in the outset it may tempt to profanity.

"This, however, is of short duration with a man of any sense, because he finds that the less he resorts to profanity and impatience the better his score."
