Union Pacific Only Active Stock to Show Any Decline; Bethlehem Steel in Demand

By Associated Press

New York, Jan. 7 .- Aside from its general firmness, to-day's early stock market was devoid of especial feature. Dealings were lighter than in the same period of the preceding session and changes were again limited to mere fractions. Union Pacific was the only active stock to show any decline, others being either unchanged or slightly higher. For the first time since London's resumption a few international issues showed small gains, but these were offset by losses, some of hich ranged from 1 to 2 points. Bethlehem Steel, yesterday's active stock, was again in demand, with some inquiry for United States Steel and American Can. Dealings were lighter than in the same
