To-morrow the White Sale Will Take On New Vigor

A Sale of Men's Suits---Worthy Every Man's Consideration

That man never lived (we are told), who, being possessed of even a minimum amount of genuine business sense, would pass up an apparently good proposition without first giving it due thought.

HERE IS OUR PROPOSITION

We want you to satisfy yourself as to your suit needs, and then give this sale your consideration.

Prices are down---assortments are good---styles are seasonable. And these are the three fundamental principles of a worthy sale of this nature.

Stating Our Own Case

It's a pure-and-simple matter of having more than a desired number on hand, for this season of the year, but the sale links right up with the peculiarity of this particular time, when suits purchased earlier in the season are invariably beginning to look shabby, and yet men as a rule do not care about paying full price for new ones.

About the Suits

There are all kinds, to be sure, but the majority---in fact most of them are the snappy models that men are now wearing. Shown in blues, blacks, tartan checks, stripes, mixtures, worsteds, serges and cassimeres.

29 Suits Reduced to $6.75

From $8.90 and $9.90; full range of sizes, including "stouts" in 44 and 46.

44 Suits Reduced to $8.75

From $10.90, $12.50, $13.50 and $15.00---all sizes, including "stouts," in 36, 37, 38, 42, 46 and 48.

38 Suits Reduced to $10.75

From $13.50, $15.00 and $16.50. All sizes excepting 33 and 42. "Stouts" in 40, 44 and 46.

39 Suits Reduced to $12.75

From $15.00, $16.50 and $18.00. Every size from 34 to 40. "Stouts" in 38 and 39.

NOTE: In a few instances there are only one or two of a size, but these are mostly in very small or very large sizes. Good assortment.

Every Overcoat Has Been Given a New Price

This means overcoats and balmacaans in all the season's styles. Sale prices are:

$5.00, $6.75, $8.75, $10.75, $12.75

A Little Chat to Women About Millinery

To-day, more than ever, it is our desire to show the new ideas first, and while they are new. We pride ourselves in being able to present a new style just as soon as it makes its appearance in New York which is now the style center, and this fact is sustained by recent examples. The Tipperary, a familiar style on the street to-day is only one instance, having been first introduced by us last November, and it meant a great deal to the women of style, for it was the forerunner of the now popular small shapes that adorn the top of the head, and which are strongly features in.

The Chin-Chin Sailors Now On Show

The Chin-Chin is an entirely new note in millinery---a new revision of the sailor, and dominates the millinery styles in New York to-day. Very striking, too, perched on top of the head, and crowned with a dainty flowerette wreath, or clusters of fruit and flowers.

They are made of satin, chamois, silk and faille, and some have tagal facings.

The shades are also an example of bold newness and are called:

Battleship gray, Belgian blue, flame, sand, putty, new rose, also white, black and nigger brown

We invite you to see these new models and pass your judgment, a few of which are on exhibition in window.

Chic trimmed hats are $3.49 to $10.00
Untrimmed shapes 98¢ to $7.50
