TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderline at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful scurf will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Advertisement.

THE REVIES HOSTS TO BOB WHITE CLUB

Evidences of the Little New Year Are Seen on Every Side

Mr. and Mrs. Revie, of Schuykill street, pleasantly entertained members of the Bob White Club at their home last evening. As the first hosts of the year to the club the decorations, favors, games, speeches and all the fun was suggestive of 1915 with its brilliant outlook to the club.

Mrs. Revie sang several selections and there was dancing and an entertainment by Mr. Pressley and Little Bobby Revie. At the buffet supper cards indicated the Bob White's baby 1915 party.

Demonstration Dances at the Board of Trade

Miss Kathleen Westbrook's Saturday night dancing class finishes the season this evening with a subscription dance at the Board of Trade, when Miss Westbrook and Frederick Spies, of New York city, will give a series of demonstration dances. Mr. Spies is famous along his line of work and has given various exhibitions with Miss Burke, an understudy of Pavlova.

OPEN MEETING OF STORY TELLERS CLUB

Slav Stories Will Be Featured at Tuesday Evening's Session at the Library

Next week's meeting of the Story Tellers League will be an open session, held Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock sharp, in order to allow members to attend a lecture later in the evening.

The program of "Slav Stories" will be led by Miss Martha Fleming, who will give an old Russian tale, "The Story of Barbouska." Miss Hilda Atterberg will tell the story of "The Cobbler, Martin Avedelch, Who Lived the Life of the Christ" written by Count Tolstoy. "The Shepherd and the Dragon," by Lillian Gask, a Serbian folk tale, will be related by Miss Dolores Segelbaum, and Miss Claire Bashore has selected the tale, "God Knows How to Punish Man," transcribed from Eastern Slavonic stories by A. H. Wratislav.

Miss Martha Wolf Buehler will give an illustrated post card talk of the Balkan countries who has visited, which will be full of interest, and a special program will be read of a meeting of a Philadelphia Story Tellers League of which Dr. Frederick A. Childs of the University of Pennsylvania is president. The subject is "The Story in Character Building." The league is interested in a lecture to be given in the Technical High school auditorium, Tuesday evening, February 12, by Professor J. G. Garter Troop, of the University of Toronto, the official lecturer of the Drama League of America. His subject will be "The Folk Tale and Fairy Story," and popular prices will prevail.

LEARN NEW DANCES

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt Giving Several Little Social Events Another in the series of class dances directed by Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Bernhardt was held Wednesday night and proved a big success. The fox trot, one of the most popular of the new dances, was the special feature of the evening. While these dances are held for the purpose of learning the late steps, they are really pleasant little social affairs.

Those present were Miss E. A. Koen, Miss A. Leas, Miss Edna Erb, Miss Vera Runkle, Miss Anna Stoetz, Miss Myra Porter, Miss Ruth Runkle, Mrs. W. E. Orth, Mrs. Charles Adler, Mrs. A. M. Porter, J. W. Sister: Read My Free Offer!

I am a woman. I know a woman's trial. I know her need of sympathy and help. If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or if you are unable to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Women's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers postpaid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address: MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box H, SOUTH BEND, IND.
