CONRAD BLUMENSTEIN SEVENTY YEARS OLD

Will Celebrate Birthday Informally Tomorrow at His Home in Derry Street

The first groceryman to locate on Allison's Hill, Conrad Blumenstein, better known as "Uncle Cooney," will celebrate his 70th birthday anniversary to-morrow in a most informal manner, and friends all over the city will send him greetings and gifts.

Born in Hessen Castle, Germany, January 12, 1845, Mr. Blumenstein came to America in 1864 on a sailing ship which took seven weeks for the journey. In 1868 he married Miss Sara Sheaffer in this city. She and their three children have all passed away, and Mr. Blumenstein is now making his home with relatives at 1530 Derry street. He had been in the grocery business for 44 years and is still actively engaged in it, at 1528 Derry street. Mr. Blumenstein is a member of the Fourth Reformed Church at Market and Sixteenth streets; of Dauphin Castle, No. 40, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and of Peace and Plenty Lodge, No. 69, I. O. O. F.

Both men and women will be welcome, and as the question of woman's political enfranchisement will come before the people for a popular vote this fall it is hoped that every one who can will attend the meeting and inform himself on the subject.

Miss Pearl Rice and Miss Myrtle Watkins, of Biglerville, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawbecker at Camp Hill.

Mrs. Clrudy and Miss Longsdorf, of Baltimore, were visitors at the home of B. E. Commings, North Fourth street, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitchell have gone to Boston after visiting their daughter, Mrs. William Scott Hall, at 1206 North Sixteenth street.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Advertisement.

LAMBERTON TECHNICAL BUILDING AT CARLISLE

$100,000 SCHOOL COMPLETED BY TOWN

Will Be Taken Over by Board of Education at Meeting This Evening

Special to The Telegraph

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 11.—Following an inspection held this afternoon, the Carlisle school board will meet this evening to formally take over the new $100,000 Lamberton technical building as part of the educational system of the town. A date for dedicatory exercises, which are expected to be attended by a number of prominent educational men from all parts of the State, will be set later.

The construction of this building was begun about a year ago and was just recently completed. James Porter, of Carlisle, was the contractor and C. Howard Lloyd, of Harrisburg, was the architect and superintended the work of construction.

The building is 250 feet in length by 80 in width and is located in Graham street, in the Moorland section of the town. It is constructed of tapestry brick with trimmings of sandstone and presents an imposing appearance. The school plot comprises some four acres and the remaining portion other than that occupied by the building will form an athletic field and recreation center.

About 350 pupils are now in the building, which gives accommodation not only for the regular high school work along scientific and classical lines, but also furnishes facilities for technical instruction. Woodworking, drafting, electrical and iron working courses are prepared for boys, and domestic science and kindred branches for the girls.

The building, while built by the town, is following lines laid out in the will of the late Charles L. Lamberton, who set aside the sum of $250,000, the interest of which is to be used to maintain this school. It was in his honor that the structure was named the Lamberton building.

HUNTINGDON HAS POST OFFICE ROW

Lesher's Ambitions Appear to Be Bitterly Opposed Among the County Seat's Folks

Huntingdon, Pa., Jan. 11.—The subject now uppermost in the minds of the citizens of Huntingdon is the appointment of a postmaster to succeed Howard E. Butz, Republican, whose term will expire February 5. Several candidates are in the field and the town has been well canvassed for endorsements by petition and letter.

The candidate most bitterly opposed is Joseph G. Lesher, acting chairman of the Democratic county committee. Lesher claims that he was elected chairman at a meeting of the county committee a few months ago, but this is disputed by his predecessor, J. Murray Africa, who insists that he, and not Lesher, received a majority of the legal votes cast in convention and that he was therefore elected county chairman. Notice of contest was served on Lesher by Africa soon after the convention, but no action has yet been taken by the State committee in the matter.

When Lesher announced his candidacy for the postmastership he said he would have the endorsement of Congressman Frank L. Dershem, of this district. But the congressman has repeatedly declared he has not yet endorsed any candidate for the appointment, although he expected to do so soon. He will act this week, it is believed. The opposition to Lesher is pronounced. Among other things, it is urged that he has no just claims upon the appointment, as he has been a resident of the town only a short time, having moved here recently from Snyder county. It is charged, also, that in becoming a candidate for postmaster Lesher is acting in bad faith. Democratic leaders in Huntingdon and Huntingdon county, especially those who have been actively identified with the movement of the "reorganized" Democracy, are openly opposed to Lesher and doing all they can to prevent his appointment.

Among other persons named as candidates for the postmastership, real and supposed, are John C. Dunkle, Peter Geriach, G. W. Miller, D. F. Mobus, W. S. Herncane and John C. Gillam. Some of these have circulated petitions; others have not.

HARRISBURG NOW HAS OFFICIAL TRADE MARK

Harrisburg Trademark Issued By Chamber of Commerce.

HARRISBURG, PA. THE HEART OF DISTRIBUTION

"Harrisburg, the Heart of Distribution," will be called to the attention of every one receiving correspondence from Harrisburg business houses through the use of a trademark design being fuurnished to members and printing houses by the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce.

Electros of this trademark can be had on application at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the Kunkel building. Following a meeting of the executive committee at the Harrisburg Club this statement was made:

"That Harrisburg can rightfully claim to be 'The Heart of Distribution' is shown by a statement received by Secretary E. L. McColgin from William J. Harris, Director of the Census, Washington, which states that a special estimate made after measuring the districts taken in by six different circles gave the following result as of April 15, 1910:

Radius, miles.	Population.
50	981,000
100	6,294,000
200	20,100,000
300	27,584,000
400	36,806,000
500	43,592,000

"Harrisburg reaches the above population by direct freight and passenger service.

"The Chamber of Commerce desires to have every business man in Harrisburg print the trademark shown on his letterheads, envelopes, advertising matter, labels, etc. They advise that it will cost nothing extra and it will show to the world that local people realize to the utmost the distinctive advantages of the city for business. It will perhaps induce interests who could transfer business here when serving the population mentioned above to get in touch with the Chamber of Commerce.

"The Chamber, therefore, requests that when printing is ordered arrangements be made to include the design. On a letterhead it can be placed where the date line comes; on an envelope under the return card."

E. R. Eckenrode, of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, and G. A. Flink, consulting and constructing engineer, will be voted in as members of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce at the directors' meeting on Wednesday, January 13, at the Harisburg Club.

L. L. Ferree, superintendent of the Harrisburg Light and Power Company, takes the place of Edzar Z. Wallower, who has removed to Lockport, N. Y.

An invitation from the Lancaster Automobile Club to attend a meeting there on Wednesday was referred to the Motor Club of Harrisburg. The Lancaster club is endeavoring to relieve the toll road situation between there and Philadelphia and the Chamber of Commerce assured the motor club people that it was willing to lend its hand when it could assist.

The committee on trades excursion will meet to-morrow and arrange for a two-day trip to take place later in January.

DIXON DISCUSSES CARE OF THE SKIN

Commissioner Makes Some Very Plain Statements in Talking About Our Cuticle

Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, State Commissioner of Health, calls attention to the necessity for taking good care of the skin during the winter months as well as in other times. The commissioner discusses the skin in one of his weekly health talks and says in part:

"Few people pay sufficient attention to the care of the skin. A certain number of both sexes devote no little time to the care of that portion which appears above their collars, but few understand the real importance of the functions of the skin.

"We breathe through the skin. A considerable volume of oxygen is absorbed by the body through the pores of the skin. These poisons are eliminated through the glands of the skin, passing off in perspiration.

"The skin is one of the body's thermostats that automatically regulate its temperature. If the heat grows excessive the blood vessels in the skin dilate and permit the circulation of an extraordinary amount of blood near the surface. This permits the radiation of the heat from the blood and the corresponding cooling of the body and stimulates a more active combustion.

"When the body is exposed to cold, if the skin is properly performing its functions it will contract and drive the blood away from the skin to concentrate its warmth near the vital organs.

"The ends of the nerves which give us our sense of touch are located in the skin. In order that these various functions may be properly carried out it is essential that the skin be well cared for at all times. If the pores are not kept thoroughly clean the poisonous excretions instead of being expelled are reabsorbed by the blood. Such a condition also prevents the skin from absorbing oxygen, as it should do when properly performing its functions. Then, too, there is the question of beauty. A clean, helathy, well-groomed skin is geneuinely attractive.

"Soap and water should be vigorously applied, but no soap left on the skin after bathing. Sleep and exercise in fresh air combined with good food and plenty of water are better than all the skin foods and beautifiers and their consistent and regular use will add materially to the general bodily health and well being."

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Advertisement.

FOR A BAD COLD

The surest way to stop a cold is to liven the liver and cleanse the bowels, and the nicest cathartic to do this is a 10-cent box of Cascarets. Take one or two Cascarets to-night and your cold may be gone by morning.—Advertisement.
