

When I take down my ole fiddle An' I rosum up the bow, I find the sweetest music In the tunes of long ago. That's a kind o' mellow sweetness In a good thing growin' old; Each year that rolls around it, Leaves an added touch o' gold.

We love the ole fren's better Than we'll ever love the new. We get the greatest comfort When we wear the oldest shoe. An' I find my greatest pleasure When I'm smokin' fragrant, ripe Age-mellowed, smooth, old VELVET In my oldest, sweetest pipe.

Velvet Joe

A GOOD thing growin' old! Who would exchange a well thumbed, well loved old book, that the years have "mellowed" into a classic, for a dozen modern "best sellers?"

Who would lay by his "old familiar" pipe, nut-sweet and browned by use and smoke, for the finest, shiniest, newest pipe ever made?

You, who like the good things growin' old, will like VELVET, The Smoothest Smoking Tobacco—Kentucky's Burley de Luxe, with an aged-in-the-wold mellowness, the result of more than two years' careful curing.

Man Sent to Prison For Life Term After He Had Stolen Two Hams

Chicago, Jan. 12.—William Cline, stole two hams, pleaded guilty before Judge Pettit, and was sentenced yesterday to the penitentiary for life, under the "old offense" statute. The court read from a record handed to him by Assistant State's Attorney Quinn that Cline had served several terms in the House of Correction, had twice been in the penitentiary and had changed his name several times.

"The world will be informed," concluded the court, "that I have sentenced a man to the penitentiary for life for stealing two hams. I have not done that. Your record shows you to be a crook and I hope they will find a way to keep crooks like you in the penitentiary when you reach there this time. You are sentenced to the penitentiary for life, according to law."

RESUME OF LIFE OF THE REV. C. A. HARE

Minister Whom Tabernacle Baptist Church Hopes Will Accept Call Has Traveled Much

The Rev. Calvin A. Hare, 611 Briggs street, acting pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, Forster street, left Bucknell University last year as professor of Christian civics and logic to resume his former work as a minister. He is at present considering a call from the congregation of Tabernacle Baptist. He came here the first of October to remain until January 1, during the Stough campaign.

The Rev. Mr. Hare was born at Yellow Springs, Blair county, and is the son of David Hare. His mother was Miss Margaret Kemp, of Huntingdon before her marriage. He received his preparatory training at Reed Institute and after graduating from that institution went to Bucknell University. From this school he went to the Greater Baptist Theological Seminary at Chester, and then to the Union Presbyterian Theological Seminary of New York. After finishing his courses in these two institutions he entered the ministry as pastor of the College Avenue Baptist Church, of Indianapolis and later the North Frankfort Baptist Church of Philadelphia. He remained in the ministry for two years, and then went back to Bucknell as a professor and assistant treasurer. Here he remained for fourteen years, leaving in June, 1914, to resume the ministry. He has traveled extensively, home and abroad, spending many months in Egypt, the Holy Land and visiting many of the universities of Europe. The Rev. Calvin Hare has one brother, the Rev. J. Madison Hare, Scotch Plain, N. J., who has charge of the Baptist church there, which is the oldest in the State.

The Rev. W. S. Enoch, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the Rev. J. W. Greene, former pastor of the Tabernacle Church, were students of the Rev. Mr. Hare at Bucknell. The entire congregation hopes he will accept the hearty invitation extended him by all the members and remain with them. Recently he refused an offer from an institution of learning, giving as a reason that he left the school rooms to take up the ministry and he did not care to go back at present.

Temperance Union to Expose Church Members Who Aid Liquor Folk

At a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in Grace M. E. Church, late yesterday afternoon, it was decided to publish a book containing the names of all applicants for liquor licenses in this county, their signers and the owners of the buildings in which the proposed saloons are to do business. The organization believes this action will tend to reduce the number of saloons and to church members owning buildings, from renting them to saloonkeepers. A temperance institute will be held here January 28. To-morrow night a medal contest will be held in Christ Lutheran Church under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Bolan, superintendent of the medal contest department.
