

The Home Doctor

(Clip out and save) How To Cure Rheumatism Here is a prescription for rheumatism to be mixed at home... Don't experiment on a bad cough or cold. It is very risky.

J. G. BAY, AGED 84, DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Was One of City's Oldest Retired Businessmen; Founder of Bay Shoe Company

J. G. M. Bay, one of the oldest business men of Harrisburg and prominent in the management of a number of local financial companies, died this morning at 5:15 o'clock at his home, 9 North Fifth street, after suffering from pneumonia since December 27. He was in his eighty-fourth year and had been a resident of this city sixty-three years.

MORE THAN 50,000 KILLED AND WOUNDED

Pope Benedict Expresses Desire to Go to Scene of Disturbance to Comfort Distressed

Rome, Jan. 14.—That there has been very great loss of life and property is apparent. Estimates of the number killed ranged last night as high as 12,000, while the number of persons injured was placed at about 20,000. Estimates made this morning, however, in the light of further news from the stricken district placed the number of killed and wounded together at more than fifty thousand.

EARTHQUAKE CLAIMS TOLL OF 50,000

From all reports, seems to have centered in the vicinity of the town of Avezzano, where 15,000 persons have been killed or injured, according to the latest official reports. Reports of physicians, nurses and government officials have been ordered to provide all necessities for the stricken people.

"THE EARTHQUAKE ZONE"

Train Enroute to Rome Has Disappeared; Efforts Trace It of No Avail

Rome, Jan. 14.—The fate of Avezzano, sixty-three miles east of Rome, and the surrounding Abruzzi country, called the Italian Switzerland, and which has become one of the most fertile lands of Italy, has plunged the whole country into the deepest mourning.

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart Additional Friday Specials

- Final Clearance of a Small Group of Winter Trimmed Hats Friday at $2.95
Trimmed and Ready-to-Wear Hats for Girls Friday at 25c
Bedding Goods 42c bleached sheets, size 72x90 inches. Special Friday only35c

TO TALK ON GERMAN TRADE CONDITIONS

George S. Atwood, of Berlin, Will Address Chamber of Commerce at Luncheon Tomorrow

Attendance at the luncheon to be given George S. Atwood, secretary of the American Association of Commerce and Trade, Berlin, Germany, who will address the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce at noon, will be large. Acceptances to date indicate at least 100.

Mr. Atwood's address on present and future economic conditions in Germany, affecting businessmen of this country in exports to Germany, and imports from there, will be interesting. The war is making Berlin conditions a matter of lively concern.

Many Cases of Want Reported in Lower End

Ninety-three cases of extreme destitution have been reported to the Dauphin Poor Board from Middletown and Royaltown and investigation into the unusual conditions was made today by John E. Guyer, clerk to the Poor Board, Miss Rachel Staples, the county's special social worker, and Miss Charlotte Romberger, general secretary and investigator for the Associated Charities.

RETURNS POCKETBOOK, BUT KEEPS MOST OF CONTENTS

"Is a man honest who finds a pocketbook containing cash and papers and returns the pocketbook but keeps the cash?"

Both Mayor John K. Royal and Colonel Joseph R. Hutchison seek a solution. The pocketbook was lost by James P. Lowe, of 517 Walnut street. It was sent by mail to the Mayor's office minus most of its contents.

SERVICES FOR MRS. KNEPP

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Knepp, aged 72 years, who died Monday at the Harrisburg Hospital, were held this afternoon at her home in Marysville where the body was taken by Undertaker Speese.

MRS. SMITH BURIED

Funeral services of Mrs. Linnie Smith, aged 58 years, who died Monday at the Harrisburg Hospital, were held this afternoon at her home in Marysville where the body was taken by Undertaker Speese.

Consider New Work at Directors' Meeting

Plans for new work, and monthly reports were considered at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce last night at the Harrisburg Club. The big feature was a dinner given by the directors by the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Henderson Gilbert.

WANTS $3,500 DAMAGES

Jacob Kreiser entered suit against the King, Evans and Reily Construction Company, which is excavating a trolley roadway near Heister for $3,500, late this afternoon. Kreiser says he was knocked from his wagon by a steam shovel.

WANTS $3,500 DAMAGES

Jacob Kreiser entered suit against the King, Evans and Reily Construction Company, which is excavating a trolley roadway near Heister for $3,500, late this afternoon. Kreiser says he was knocked from his wagon by a steam shovel.

SMITH'S, 412 Market St. EXTRA SPECIAL EXTRA Never were chances to save real hard earned money so great as now. To keep the new year's business growing to beat previous years' records we will sell dependable and trustworthy merchandise at such low prices, none can fail to supply their wants—Come to Smith's store tomorrow for real values at unmatched low prices. Read each and every item carefully.

RUSSIANS UNDERTAKE AN OFFENSIVE MOVE

Heavy Fighting Going On Berlin, Jan. 14.—By wireless to London, 3:45 P. M.—The War Office today gave out the following statement: In the western theater of the war, in the district near Nieport and southwest of Ypres, heavy fighting is going on. The enemy directed an extremely strong fire on Westende, which they soon will have entirely destroyed. Their torpedo boats disappeared quickly as soon as they received our fire.

Letter Carriers Will Install Officers Tomorrow

Harry C. Winger will be installed as president of the Harrisburg Branch No. 509, of the National Association of Letter Carriers, at a meeting of the members of the organization tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Post Office building.

Lalanc-Grosjean Plant Receives Special Orders

Work at the Lalanc-Grosjean tin plant will be resumed Monday, January 25. Another week's delay in completing repairs prevents the resumption of work next Monday.

WYOMING NEW FLAGSHIP

New York, Jan. 14.—The dreadnaught Wyoming to-day became the Admiral Fletcher's flagship. Rear Admiral Fletcher yesterday transferred his flag to the Wyoming in order that the admiral's quarters on the New York could be made ready for the use of President Wilson and his party on the trip to the Panama Canal.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

Vienna, Jan. 14, Via London, 1:30 P. M.—An autograph letter from Emperor Francis Joseph to Count Leopold von Berchtold, accepting his resignation as Foreign Minister, is published to-day in the official Vienna Gazette.

MEN WHO HANDLE FREIGHT CARS IN ENOLA YARDS

Up to date freight yards now include humps for shifting purposes. The first use of humps in this vicinity was ten years ago when the classification yards at Enola were opened. There are two "humps" east and west. Trains are run on the humps, and cars cut off according to their classification.