ECONOMY IN WORK APRONS

Do not throw away faded or outgrown house dresses. Cut off the waists, laundered the skirts and use them to cover your good skirts when doing housework. A shirring tape may be run through the belt and gathered tightly around the top of the skirt hanger, so as to keep out the dust. Old wrappers can also be used for covering one-piece dresses. Do not cut off the top of the wrapper, but run in a tape at the top and at the bottom.

SPECULATIVE ISSUES SHOW UNCERTAINTY

New York Central Strongest of All Railway Issues, Soon Rising a Point

By Associated Press

New York, Jan. 14. — Wall Street. — Speculative issues showed all of their recent uncertainty at the opening of to-day's stock market, United States Steel and Reading selling lower, while Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper were higher. New York Central was strongest of all the railway issues, soon rising a point. Baltimore and Ohio, whose directors meet to-day to act on the dividend, held steady, despite the general belief that a lower rate of disbursement will be declared. United Railways Investment, Pfd., added a point to yesterday's gain, while the Common yielded fractionally after opening at an advance.

RELIEF COMMISSION APPEALS TO TENER

Receives Telegram Announcing That Postage and Expressage on Supplies Will Be Refunded

Governor Tener received the following telegram from Lindon W. Bates, vice-chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, 71 Broadway, New York, to-day:

"The commission for relief in Belgium, the officially designated sole agency through which food and supplies may be brought into Belgium, has just concluded arrangements with the Post Office Department and with express companies whereby anyone in America may forward foodstuffs for relief in Belgium by parcel post or express without cost of transportation to the sender.

"The supplies needed are nonperishable foodstuff; also new blankets and new clothing. On account of the postal laws parcel post packages cannot be sent by parcel post "C. O. D." By following the instruction of the department, however, the sender may, if he wishes, have his postage refunded. A similar refund wil be made on all packages sent by the following express companies: The Adams Comapny, The American Company, The Wells Fargo Express Company, The Southern Express Company, The Great Northern Express Company, and The Northern Express Company.

"The response of America to the appeal of Belgium has been gratifying, but the task of provisioning over 6,000,000 people, 1,400,000 of whom are absolutely destitute, requires the dispatch of a shipload of food every other day, and the maintaining of a transport line. State relief organization should be put on a permanent basis for continued effort until summer, if not longer. Detailed instructions for sending packages and for obtaining the refund transportation money are in the hands of the State committees representing the commission for relief in Belgium. They have also been posted by permission of Postmaster General Burleson in the 65,000 post offices throughout the United States. Similar instructions have been placed in the offices of 35,000 express companies. This information may also be had by addressing the Commission For Relief in Belgium, 71 Broadway, New York City."
