When your baby is cross and fretful instead of the happy, laughing little dear you are accustomed to, in all probability the digestion has become deranged and the bowels need attention. Give it a mild laxative, dispel the irritability and bring back the happy content of babyhood.

babyhood.
The very best laxative for children is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, because it contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant tasting and acts gently, but surely, without griping or other distress. Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar abottle. For free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

If you are suffering from eczema, ringworm or similar itching, red, unsightly skin affection, bathe the sore places with Resinol Soap and sore places with Resmot Soap and hot water, then gently apply a little Resmot Ointment. You will be astonished how instantly the itching stops and healing begins. In most cases the sick skin quickly becomes clear and healthy again, at very little cost.

Resinol Ointment is so nearly flesh-colored that it can be kept on the face, hands or other exposed surface with-out attracting undue attention.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap also clear away pimples, blackheads, and dandruff. Sold by all druggists: for trial free, write to Resinol, Dept. 29-S, Baltimore, Md.

CULPRIT CUSSED IN COURT

Youth Waxes Sarcastic at Prospect of Return to Reformatory
Disgusted at the prospect of a return to the Huntingdon Reformatory, Robert Seibert cussed with perfect and vigorous abandon in No. 2 courtroom while being ararigned for sentence before Additional Law Judge S. J. M. McCarrell.

Eeibert was one of four Middletows boys who pleaded guilty to having robbed some freight cars. All were refurned to the Institution.

Seibert asked that he be sent to the penitentiary rather than to Hunting-don. Judge McCarrell pointed out that at the reformatory he would be given a chance to reform and "lives" of Jacob W. Hartman, formerly of Etherwith sacastic promptness, "yer damned right!"

Mill Rate Is Fixed

Before the Dauphin county buddent for fifty budgefit for for counstables can be asked up the question of just what the county will be liable for for constables costs, as decided by the recent opinion in the George T. Charters case is a test the Hunting of F. M. Ott and the attorney for the constable. The Charters case is a test action and a number of constables' calms for fees hinge upon the decision. The problem, it is believed, will be decided by the County Commissioners before then. Besides the county bridges must be settled definitely.
