BUSH IS STILL A MACK PITCHER

This is the year young Bush must make good with the Athletics if he expects to keep in the star line. He has several strong contenders against him in the way of honors. Bush is looked upon as a good man for Conkle Mack's Athletics, but what will be his lot this season is still a question. Bush is one pitcher whom the New York Giants fear.

It is expected that at least 150 men, who have been active or honorary members of volunteer fire companies, will enroll in the new organization. The purpose of the association is to maintain a social spirit among the older men of the service. Beneficial features will also probably be adopted in the future.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUBS LEAD

Including the antiseason and postseason series, sixty-four games were played, of which the National League teams won thirty-two; the American League club twenty-nine, while three tie games also figured in the records. Since 1902, 113 interleague games have been played, of which the American League club have won 256 and the Nationals 252.

A. team, has been granted his unconditional release. His home is in Columbia, Pa.

PLAN TWO REFORMS IN COLLEGE RULES

Intercollegiate Committee Favors Additional Trials in Future Field Events

New York, Jan. 18.—Additional trials in field events and a Federation standard were two important changes agreed upon yesterday at a joint conference meeting of the officials of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America and the executive and advisory committee of that organization, held yesterday. Seven amendments to the constitution and by-laws will be presented at the annual meeting May 6. One of the most substantial changes offered was to increase the number of trials in the broad jump and weight events from three to six, but these are to be taken in groups of two each. In the high jump and pole vault the contestants can have all three tries in succession at each height, or wait in turn as the rule now allows. In many instances the rules will be amended so as to conform with the international federation standard. International rules are to govern all relay races. In putting the shot or throwing the hammer each competitor is to remain within the circle until the throw is marked. Heretofore penalties were inflicted in cases of fouls occurring during the trials or semifinals of races, but it will be recommended that in future the referee will have the discretionary power of ordering such trial or semifinal run over again. Another suggestion is that the starter be given the power to recall a race by firing a second shot. To insure accuracy in the running broad jump it will be advised that sand be sprinkled on the ground for a space of six inches beyond the take-off, so that in case of overstepping the shot marks may be more clearly shown. The amendments to prevent freshmen from competing in championship events was not offered, but it is understood will come later.

ARMY SCHEDULES GETTYSBURG

Game With Navy to Take Place On Polo Grounds, November 27. West Point, N. Y., Jan. 18.—The Army's football schedule for 1915 was announced yesterday. Nine games comprise the card for the Cadets next fall, all of which will be played at West Point except the championship contest with the Navy, which will take place at the Polo Grounds in New York on November 27. Two teams which have been on the Army's schedule for years will not come here next fall. They are Stevens Institute and Rutgers, Holy Cross, which played a midseason game here last year, has been moved up as the curtain-raiser for the Cadets and Gettysburg comes here later in place of Foster Sanford's team. The Army's biggest home contest will be that with Notre Dame on November 6. Thus far the Army is the only eastern team scheduled to meet the westerners in this section this year. Georgetown, after an absence of two years, is once more on the schedule. The schedule follows: October 2, Holy Cross; 9, Gettysburg; 16, Colgate; 23, Georgetown; 30, Villanova; November 6, University of Notre Dame; 13, University of Maine; 20, Springfield Training School; 27, Navy.

WHITTEN ASKS FOR MORE CASH

New York, Jan. 18.—President Gaffney, of the Boston Braves, is back in town after having spent two weeks hunting and being hunted on George Stallings' plantation at Hanksville, Ga. He gave out the interesting line of reasoning used by George Whittien in effort to keep from being sent to the Phillips in the Sherwood Magee trade. Whittien wants $3,000 more salary if he plays outside Boston than if he plays in Boston, according to Mr. Gaffney, for he figures that will be about the size of his share in the next world's series.

TWO TEAMS WITH CLEAN SLATES

Yale and Princeton Tossers Each Win Two Victories. Yale and Princeton are undefeated in the Intercollegiate Basketball League series, the former winning from Penn and Cornell last week, while Princeton registered a victory over Columbia on the latter's home floor in the only game the Tigers have played in the competition. Cornell is in third position, while Penn and Columbia are tie for fourth place. This week's contests promise to result in shake-ups, as the Red and Blue team is to meet the Tigers in a home-and-home series at Princeton to-morrow and in Weightman Hall on next Saturday night, while Yale will again face Cornell, this time on the Ithaca squad's home floor Saturday.

Bits of Sports

At a meeting of the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. basketball league to-night, the number of teams will be reduced from eight to four. At Elizabethtown on Saturday the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. five lost to Elizabethtown, score 20 to 17. Albright will retain "Hop" Bender. The Cleveland Naps will change their name to the "Indians." Lebanon high defeated Middletown high on Saturday at Lebanon, score 42 to 19. Atticks lost out in several Casino league games last week, but still leads with an average score of 200.

Local Tossers Do Good Work; Wharton Wins Opening Game

Central High Lays Low the Penn-State Freshmen; Academy Scores Easy Victory Over F. and M. Five

With the appearance of one new were State freshmen stars. Ford scored twenty points for Central. The Harrisburg Independents lost to Trenton through failure to shoot goals in the last half. There were frequent intervals when the locals outclassed Trenton. The passing of Trenton at critical periods and the goal shooting of Harry Hough were factors in the victory. Rote, McConnell and McCord were local stars. High, Kane and Reilly made good for the Tigers. The Harrisburg Academy five outclassed the Franklin and Marshall tossers, winning by a score of 32 to 25. Bennett, the captain, lead as a point scorer. Stackpole was a big factor in foul goal shooting. Broadhurst and Jennings also did good work. Aesburg, Light and Partridge were stars for the visitors. Jolly Flo Irwin Wants an Invite to Inauguration

Practically unannounced, but just as good natured as ever, Jolly Flo Irwin haled into town this morning, preparatory to playing a week's engagement at the Orpheum. This is Miss Irwin's first season in vaudeville. "Isn't it just lovely to be in Harrisburg for inaugural week?" quoth Miss Irwin. "Indeed I will have to attend the ceremonies to-morrow noon—providing, of course, I get an invitation. It certainly was mean of that committee to not remember me with an invitation, but then I didn't even know that I was coming to Harrisburg myself until last Friday, so of course the committee isn't so much to blame after all." Miss Irwin played at Keith's Theater in Washington last week. She has a sketch that is declared to be full of laughs. Wilmer and Vincent have grouped a big show around her, including Nonette, the gypsy violinist; the Courtney Sisters and the three Keatons with Buster, the boy who gets bounced around. The matinee to-morrow afternoon will be held off until after the parade, the curtain going up about 3 o'clock.
