Nemo "Invisible" Self-Reducing With the New "Visible" Nemo "Bridge"

You don't see the new kind of Nemo Self-Reducing Straps, but they are there, and gives the most comfortable support with wonderful figure-reduction.

The new "Visible" Nemo "Bridge" pivots at the highest point of the abdomen—corset goes in at the bottom and out at the top. That means plenty of room for breathing, no over-pressure on the digestive region—sound health and solid comfort, and—perfect style.

No. 341—For stout full figures, $3.00
No. 342—For tall full figures, $3.00

Note the long graceful skirt, the faint "hip" at the waist—in accordance with fashion's behest. The back is high and full enough to contain the flesh around the shoulder blades. Material is a fine white coutil. Sizes 21 to 36.

For some types of the full figure, this is the best corset ever made, and it's a very great value at $3.00.

McClain Delivers Strong Inaugural Address

In assuming the office of Lieutenant-Governor Frank B. McClain made a long address to the Senate. He said that the Legislature should not treat the party platform of 1914 as if it were a series of "new year resolutions."

missions to peer into this and into that, who make a junket of their work and then submit a report which nobody reads and presents the State with a bill running high up into the thousands of dollars, is the price of their useless information.

and as well the successful candidate for Governor, advertised new and better brands of social and industrial legislation. Apprehension because they fear that the legislative fabrics we promised to produce will never be woven, or, if woven, will not be of the quality or of the standard of usefulness we guaranteed in our campaign specifications.

our local institutions. "In making appropriations, however, for these particularly worthy purposes, and as well for other purposes, necessary in government work, let us not fail to 'cut our coat according to the cloth.'" often works so disastrously to the Commonwealth's best interests, in substantiation of which I point to the coal tax law of 1913. The tax due from these corporations, under the act of 1913, up-to-date, is, I am informed, nearly $5,000,000.
