FIVE YEARS SUFFERING FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE

It affords me much pleasure to write you telling of the merits of your medicine. I have been under the care of doctors for five years. They said an operation was imperative. I had already taken a great quantity of medicines. After reading about Dr. Kilmer's wonderful Swamp-Root I decided to give it a trial. When I would walk any distance my stomach would hurt me so I would have to cry out with pain, my limbs would ache, and my hips got numb as if paralyzed; but after using six bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I cannot praise it too highly. My friends are surprised to see me looking so well.

Respectfully yours, MRS. ROSA MITCHELL, Labadieville, La.

Personally appeared before me this 18th day of February, 1914, Mrs. Rosa Mitchell, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

L. L. NAQUIN, Justice of the Peace.

Will Get $5,000 if Rain Mars College Pageant

Pittsburgh, Jan. 19.—If there happens to be rain about 4 o'clock on the afternoon of next June 21 and 23 on the campus of Allegheny College at Meadville, a nice little check for $5,000 will change hands as a result. ELLEN TERRY More than twenty years ago Miss Ellen Terry, after one of her American tours, wrote in her diary: "I am not forty; but I am pretty well worn out." That was in 1887. Twenty years later in 1907 she wrote: "It is twenty years since then, and I am still not worn out. Wonderful! With more years gone, Miss Terry recites with such strength, fire and grace as is possessed by very few actresses of half her age. Of her, one of America's greatest critics writes: "Time has only touched with a pensive grace the affluent beauty which it had not the power to spoil. Her figure is still imperial. Her movement still evinces the buoyant freedom of the curling wave. Her smile still flashes like a sudden sunbeam, her rich voice is still a strain of music. Her gestures still possess the ease, breadth and spontaneity which have always made them absolutely appropriate and expressive. She still is Ellen Terry." - Advertisement.

Cobb: "The best book that I have read in the past twelve months is the one called 'Back Home,' published by George H. Doran Company.

"I make this statement without mental reservation, and it is a considerable study of the matter. This book has meant more to me, it has brought more to me, it has done more for me and my family than any book I ever read. Truthfully yours, W. S. COBB."
