E. N. BREITUNG AND SHIP INVOLVING AMERICA AND BRITAIN

Edward N. Breitung of New York and Chicago has raised the question oof releasing ships owned by German lines which ran to the United States in a way which it is feared may cause trouble between the United States and Great Britain. The Hamburg American line, the North German Lloyd and others had many big and costly vessels—including the great Imperator—in American ports when the war broke out. Great Britain has taken the position that these ships could not be transferred to American owners and sent forth on the high seas.

Mr. Breitung claim's to have brought the Dacia from the Hamburg American Line. He loaded her with cotton at Galveston. The State Department, having sounded the British government, has received an answer that the ship is still considered German. That means when she sails from Galveston on her way to Rotterdam shewill be seized and confiscated, just as all German vessels have been driven from the seas by the British fleets. The administration at Washington is said to have determined that the vessel shall be considered American. Mr. Breitung is reported to have ordered her to sail regardless of the British government. That will force the issue directly, and may mean trouble.

Morris Wolf, of Philadelphia, Third Deputy Attorney General, has resigned, Attorney General Prancis Shunk Brown having to-day received a letter from Mr. Wolf stating that he had forwarded his resignation to the Governor, who has the appointing power under the act of 1913 reorganizing the Attorney General's department. In his letter Mr. Wolf sked no time for retirement and stated that he desired to take up some pending matters with the new Attorney General when he returned to Philadelphia the latter part of the week.

Mr. Brown said that he had not taken up the subject with Governor Brumbaugh, but would do so. It is understood about the Capitol that the resignation is effective when accepted.

A reception and opportunity for inspection will be given to dealers of the surrounding country and all interested citizens about April 1.

The fact that this large company has decided to make this city its main distributing center means, perhaps, more than can be conceived at this time, as the next few years' growth in should develop a business of an immense character. # TURK RESISTANCE HAS COLLAPSED; ALLIES NEAR RHINE

Advance French Trenches Reported to Be Within Sixteen Miles of River; Austrians Are Bombarding Montenegrin Positions; Russian Warship Sinks Twelve Vessels Off Coast of Asia Minor; Turks Retreating With Heavy Losses

Russian accounts of the war with Turkey make it appear that the resistance of the Ottoman troops has virtually collapsed. An official statement to-day from the Russian staff of the Caucasian army says that further defeats have been inflicted on the Turkish troops in a series of rearguard actions, and that the Turks, after suffering heavy losses, are retreating precipitately. The statement announces the capture of a transCaucasian town near the Turkish border. It is said also that a Russian warship sank twelve vessels off the coast of Asia Minor.

Fighting between Austrians and Montenegrins which has been almost at a standstill on account of the winter weather and heavy snows, has been resumed across the border from Cattarro. The Austrians bombarded Montenegrin positions but it is said at Cettinje no damage was inflicted.

The allies now have their eyes on the Rhine and British troops may be sent to Belfort, in Eastern France, to take part in any possible advance to the river, says a Geneva report, which lacks verification. It is stated that the advance French trenches are within sixteen miles of Rhine.
