DON'T USE SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain, mulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else as to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

Hot Tea Breaks a Cold—Try This!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

Line of Parade, Stand Scenes and Pictures of Crowd Comprise Lengthy Film

The Harrisburg Pictorial No. 3, a moving picture record of the inaugural ceremonies of last Tuesday, was given its initial run at the Photoplay theater on Market street, Saturday and will be continued to-day and to-morrow.

The pictures are exceptionally clear and cover a full thousand feet of film. They embrace scenes at the inaugural parade, with a very good view of Governor Brumbaugh signing his name to the oath of office, much of the parade and snatches of the crowds. They will be exhibited all over Pennsylvania after having been shown here and will then be sent to the Panama American exposition.

This is the third set of pictures made under the auspices of the Telegraph, preserving for all time events of historical importance in Harrisburg.

Mother Pleads For Son Who Robbed the St. James

From Perth Amboy, N. J., the anxious mother of youthful Roy Brooks, hastened to the Dauphin county court this afternoon to beg leniency for her son whose plea of guilty to the charge of attempting to burglarize the St. James' hotel in approved second-story fashion, was disposed of by President Judge Kunkel. Brooks said he was driven desperate by hunger, was out of a job and was discouraged enough "to take a chance." Judge Kunkel released him on bail.

Other cases disposed of to-day included the following: Cling Mitchell, felonious assault, one to fifteen months in penitentiary; Karoly Ballaski, carrying knife, two months; Vit Cukovoc, assault and battery, $10 fine and costs; John Vuckinoc, assault and battery upon trolley conductor, $10 fine and costs. A brother of John's bitterly denounced the arbitrary attitude of the trolley men toward his small brother, Tomo Osaneski, who feigned sleep in a chicken coop he was trying to rob, got two months. Sentence was suspended on Morris Bland and A. J. Silk. The court wanted to inquire more fully into the reason why so many articles of value to the fairer sex only. The court refused to revoke its order, committing Clarence Hines to the Huntingdon reformatory.
