EVANGELIST SCORES CARDS AND DANCING

"No Business to Have Deck of Cards and Bible in Same House"

Special to The Telegraph
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 27.—"Cards, Theater and the Dance" was the subject last evening of Evangelist Miller's sermon, which drew thousands to the tabernacle, caused hundreds to stand in the aisles and around the walls and hundreds to turn away in disappointment because the building will not accommodate the ever increasing crowd. "Amen," "That's right," was heard on all sides during the sermon. Realizing the truth of the forcible remarks, a hush was on the audience. "You have no business to have a deck of cards and Bible in the same house," declared the evangelist. "Ninety per cent. of all crimes and of fallen girls has resulted from having been taught the game in their own home. If used in the right way, under Christian censorship, the theater could be a powerful cause for good. Under present conditions Jesus Christ will never go to a theater, and if you are a Christian you cannot go where He will not go. The dance is so much worse than the card game and theater that it towers above every other evil. It is the vestibule to hell."

It is estimated that 1,500 people stood and pledged against the dance at the Rev. Mr. Miller's appeal. To-night reservations will be made for a large delegation from the D. Wilcox Manu-

THOUGHT OF THE PRESIDENT WAS THE PRESIDENT

Sent Card "Mr. Wilson" to Congressman Brodbeck in Serving Notice

Special to The Telegraph
York, Pa., Jan. 27.—The first of the hearing in connection with the charges made by Congressman A. R. Brodbeck to the effect that there was fraud in the election of C. William Beales to Congress and the contest of his right to seat in the House of Representatives will be held in the courthouse to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Notice of the hearing has been sent to Joseph S. Black, Donald Swope and D. P. McPherson, counsel for the congressman elect by Attorneys H. O. Ruby and John A. Hooper, who represent Mr. Brodbeck. Many witnesses from the First district of the Twelfth ward, this city, will be heard. This is one of the voting districts mentioned by Congressman Brodbeck in his charges of fraud.

Detective Charles H. Wilson, of Adams county, who is here attending court, tells an amusing story of when he served notice on Congressman Brodbeck of the charges preferred against him by Congressman-elect C. William Beales. He sent in his card at the Capitol simply as Mr. Wilson. When the congressman appeared in the reception room he was somewhat dazed to find the officer. "Who did you think it was?" asked the detective. "Oh, I thought it was the President," was the reply. It was Mr. Wilson's turn to laugh, and he read the charges preferred by his coming successor.

4 Cans of Ashes Less
An institution in this city had been using a certain grade of buckwheat coal in its steam heating plant, and daily cans of ashes were taken from the furnace.

Then Kelley's Nanticoke Buckwheat was tried with the result that only 6 cans of ashes had to be removed.

This demonstrates the superior heating efficiency of Kelley's Buckwheat — more heat and less ashes because it's all pure coal.

CONSTIPATION A PENALTY OF AGE

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills. Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild-effective laxative- tonic, recommended by physicians and thousands who have used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty cents a bottle, one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headaches,' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KARSCHENICK, 1438 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case.
Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. SHERER, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifluid coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get multifluid coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.
