What We Say It Is IT Is A Diener Diamond Is a Fine Investment

In the last 20 years Diamond values have increased 150% to 200%. The larger increase is in stones over 1/2 carat weight for the supply of these decreases more rapidly. The war stopped Diamond production abruptly and absolutely. This loss will be made up in higher prices when the mines open. As a choice investment a fine Diener Diamond now heads the list.

Diener Diamonds are all guaranteed as to quality, color and weight. You have excellent selections in all sizes in both mounted and loose stones. As we purchase direct of the cutters, we save you the middleman's profit. All stones are marked in plain figures. No one has an advantage, you have not. Come in and let us explain how easy we make it for you to own a fine Diamond.

WOMAN MUST PLAN TO STAND ALONE

So Says Ellen Terry, Famous Actress, in Special Interview Today

By Anna H. Wood A woman's duty is to prepare herself to stand alone, no matter what life holds for her," said Ellen Terry. Wonderfully young, alive with enthusiasm and energy this marvelous actress lay in her bed at the Commonwealth Hotel and discussed life and its problems. She had been playing in Australia and found herself unable to return to England by the usual route because of the war conditions.

"I came over here to cross your country and sail for home but in no time I found myself booked for a dozen cities. But I want to get home soon—very soon. I have a daughter, Edith Craig, surely you know her? She is the head mover of all the suffrage body in London. They tell me the middle of London is the safest place one can be now—but if so I want to be there! You see, she is there without me! The woman who is mother before all else. My son, too, is well known. He has a school in Florence, Italy. He is Gordon Craig, but I feel he is safe. I am so glad my children are of the class who DO things. It was my greatest prayer for them before they came."

Speaks of Irving When Miss Terry spoke of her great associate and co-worker, Sir Henry Irving, her eyes filled with tears. "I had heard he was ill and I went to see him," she said, "but the end was such a shock to us all. I was not acting at the time. You see I knew I was growing too old for the young parts. I would look absurd as Juliet, for instance. I gave over my youngest role to your American actress, Julia Arthur. She is the most beautiful woman in the world, I think."

Views on Suffrage Miss Terry is a follower, all unconsciously, of the New Thought cult. She believes that to want a thing long enough and hard enough, finally secures it. She hesitates to express herself upon the suffrage question further than to say she is in entire sympathy with it. "Any sensible woman would have to feel so. Of course, conditions are so very, very different over there that Americans cannot understand why we use militant tactics. She was sorry to have missed Senator Clapp's address last night at the Capitol. She had been told it was wonderfully good. As her train got in too late, however, for her to go there, she dropped into the Majestic theater and saw the amateur performance of "Papa's Daughters."

FAMOUS FOR HER HAIR

Madame Rose, the well-known actress who played on one of the leading vaudeville circuits the past winter and who is especially noted for her long, beautiful hair, in a recent interview in Chicago made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can promote the growth of their hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. This is not only the finest hair grower I have ever known, but it prevents the hair from falling out, removes dandruff and scalp humors, darkens streaked and gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. The ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost."—Advertisement.

Give Ex-Governor Tener Hearty Welcome Home

Ex-Governor John Kinley Tener was given an ovation Monday on the occasion of his home-coming to Charleroi. There was a public reception in the afternoon in the clubhouse of the Charleroi Lodge, Benevolent and Fraternal Order of Elks, Monday evening a banquet was given in his honor at the Hotel Wilbur by old friends and business associates. Both events were delightfully informal and probably the most interesting of many prominent guests. The reception committee included R. H. Rush, Kerfoot W. Daly, E. W. Hastings, Burgess S. L. Woodward, E. B. Todd and Roland W. Foster is well known in Charleroi. He will remain a few days in Charleroi and then go to Philadelphia, where he will reside at the Maidstone.

Story Telling Club Has Evening of Opera

A representative audience of over a hundred guests and members of the Story Telling club heard a most beautiful program last evening in the assembly room of the Public Library. Professor Frederic C. Martin gave a fine setting to the theme "Stories of the Wagner Operas." In his account of Bayreuth, the musical shrine of Richard Wagner, Professor Martin said that in building the festival theater in the quaint Bavarian city, Wagner's purpose had been to nationalize his art. Mr. Martin described the unique manner of performance of the operas, told how Wagner had broken away from all precedents and explained the true significance of "Parsifal." He closed by skilfully contrasting Wagner's unselfishness during his life, with Wagner revered by the present day music world as a genius whom none have approached in musical achievement.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN FOR PHILIP TROUP

REPUBLIC NEEDS WOMEN

Senator Clapp said: "The government of this country will never be a true democracy until all of its citizens are real participants in its administration. We are bound to have democracy some day and, no matter how the granting of the rights of franchise to women may be temporarily delayed, it is sure to come."

The trouble in this country is not in the bad laws that our Legislatures, State or national, pass, either State or federal. The trouble lies in what I call the twilight zone of discretion; where a man equipped with legislative powers votes for a law, not because it is a good one, but because it may serve some interest, or where a man clothed with legislative powers tempers his actions to suit an individual instead of the public.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED

the keynote of successful or unsuccessful piano building. There are pianos and pianos, but over the vast number of those manufactured there stands a few pre-eminent makes which are the choice of the musicians. In every one of them you will find that building is the one great point of careful consideration.

And just so with the instruments which are offered for sale by this house. On all of the following pianos this house is the Central Pennsylvania representative, and with every one of them goes the double guarantee of agent and manufacturer.

When you consider pianos, see the Steinway, the Mehlin and the C. M. Sigler.
