READING FANS KICK

Favor Present Figures or Return to County League Baseball Game

Special to The Telegraph

Reading, Feb. 1.—Absence of a complete explanation as to the meaning of a cut in the Tri-State salary limit, has aroused local fans. They favor the present limit of $1,900 or a return to County League baseball. Reading will be represented at the Tri-State meeting February 16, by John H. Myers and Jake Weitzel.

In the event of a lower salary limit many of the players on the Reading them would not report next season, is the present belief. Reading will have at team well intacot for the starting of the campaign this Spring, if the Tri-State starts with eight clubs, for most of the players from last season would again be in harness. Boelic and John my Nagle are still on the Reading club. The pitching staff, McInnis, at first base; Gleason, at second bases; Billy Hopke, third base, and Lzzy Hoffman, Mike Jovce and Coveleskie, outfielders are still the property of the Reading club. The pitching staff, McInnis, at first base; Gleason, at second baseman and Pat Bohen, pitcher, would be about the only two men missing.

PENN STATE MEN OUT

PENN STATE MEN OUT

Pitchers and Catchers Start Work for Coming Season
Special to The Telegraph
State College, Feb. 1.—The first call for candidates for the Penn State baseball team has been issued. All battery sapirants were asked to report. Twenty men responded to the cail. Among them were last year's three regular pitchers and two substitutes and Captain Vogt, who caught all of State's games last season.

All of the pitchers should show much improvement, for they all received much added experience pitching for various teams during the summer. Hesselbacher practiced during the early part of the season with the Athletics, and later, together with both Liebert and Wardwell, pitched for the Strawbridge & Clothier team.

Eddle Collins Shines Over Wiltse and Other Big Leaguers.

Special to The Telegraph

Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 1.—Eddie Collins, the White Sox captain, and other big leaguers, including Jimmy Walsh and Pennock, of the Athletics, showed members of the Lake Placid clubs a new kind of baseball when they played a game on the snow and ice on Mirror Lake.

Teams were chosen from among the club members, Collins and Walsh being rival captains. One one team was Lieutenant-Governor Edward Scheeneek, of New York.

An indoor baseball and bat were used. The diamond was laid out in the snow and the base line soon became a glare of ice. Collins starred and won the game for his team by a fast double play in the ninth. Several bundred persons watched the game.
