THAT THIS ADVERTISEMENT MEANS A GREAT DEAL TO YOU.

Two years ago the Woman's Home Companion established its Better Babies Bureau, a service department for every mother or mother-to-be. Since its establishment more than five hundred thousand questions—from mothers of all stations in life—have been answered by the Bureau.

THEN THIS ADVERTISEMENT MEANS A GREAT DEAL TO YOU.

Read what One Mother Wrote to the Better Babies Bureau: "I shall always believe that it was the advice of the Better Babies Bureau coming to me at a very critical moment that saved my baby's life."

This Service Is Free to Every Mother Who Accepts the Harrisburg Telegraph's Great Offer

The Better Babies Bureau maintains as a member of its staff one of the highest-priced baby specialists in New York City. Mothers have the privilege of writing to the Bureau on any subject connected with the food, clothing, health or care of their children, and all Better Babies literature is free to subscribers to the Woman's Home Companion.

The Telegraph's great offer is made possible by a special arrangement with The Crowell Publishing Company, publishers of the Woman's Home Companion and The American Magazine. To take advantage of it you must act quickly, for the number of subscriptions that can be taken is limited. You pay nothing in advance; merely pay the collector at the end of the month. Act now; telephone or write the Telegraph office.

LIQUOR MEN INVEST AT OWN RISK—KUNKEL

The Dauphin County Courts, yesterday afternoon thus summed up the court's position in declining to consider the remonstrance against the transfer of the liquor license held by John A. Haas at 239-241 Ann street, Middletown, to Harry White.

Question of Necessity Only

Attorney H. B. Sausaman represented the No-License League, the churches of Middletown and some other citizens who objected to the transfer. Mr. White was represented by Fox & Geyer. The remonstrance was based only on the question of necessity for the conduct of the Ann street hotel, Attorney Sausaman contending that the lack of such need was obvious from the fact that Haas had been unable to make ends meet at the business and that the fixtures of his bar had to be sold by the sheriff.
