MISS RUTH HOOPER TAKES THE STAR IN TUNEFUL OPERA

Part of "Pitti Sing"

MISS RUTH HOOPER Who Will Take the Role of Pitti Sing. One of the Three Little Maids from School.

What promises to be an epoch-making event in the history of comic opera in Harrisburg will be the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's tuneful opera, "The Mikado," on February 11 and 12. These noted composers have delighted millions of music-lovers with their charming operas, the most noted being "Pinafore" and "The Mikado," the latter having attained the unprecedented run of 500 nights in London.

The opera, as the name implies, is Japanese, and while it is a caricature of Japan, it is decidedly Oriental in stage settings, costumes, libretto and music. The principal characters are the Mikado, Ko-Ko, Pitti Sing, Yum Yum, Nanki Poo, Katishaw, Peep Bo, Poo Bah, Pish Tush.

The chorus of fifty is the most effectively used in any opera and the following well-known songs never fail to make a hit: "Behold the Lord High Executioner," "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring," "Three Little Maids from School," "With Joyous Shouts," "Gentlemen of Japan," "A Song of the Sea," "Three Little Emperors of Japan," "My Object All Sublime."

The opera is given under the musical direction of Professor E. J. Deceve.

Lecture For Those Who Believe in Fairies

Mr. Troop believes that the story must be read or memorized. Tailored Simplicity

Is the Keynote For the Spring Season in Ladies' Tailoring

This does not mean a return to the old-fashioned three or four-button cut-away, but nobby, stylish and up-to-date garments, showing the newest features in vogue, yet simplified and toned down in such a way that while expressing the popular mode, they should be an example of refined taste and elegant simplicity.

Slick Crook Gets Money From Minister on Forged Order at New Cumberland

Special to The Telegraph
New Cumberland, Feb. 5.—Yesterday morning the Rev. J. V. Adams, pastor of the Methodist Church, was called by his study to see a man who wished to borrow of him an "urgent errand." After greeting the pastor in a courteous manner, he produced a letter, which has been proven to be a forged order upon Mr. Adams for money, who thinking it was an accommodation to the man whose name was affixed to the order, paid the amount stated. The signature was so well copied that the minister thought it genuine. The crook used an assumed name for himself and then forged that of Charles Ross, of Bridge street, New Cumberland, whose business place is at Steelton, and who was out of town at the time. After leaving the parsonage the man was seen to act strangely and persons recognizing the stranger informed Mr. Adams of his actions. He went to investigate and the man started to run and was seen to turn up an alley. The Rev. Mr. Adams has since learned of the real name of his caller and the name and address of the family in Harrisburg with whom he is staying. The minister says he has had many unreasonable demands for assistance, but this is the first of the forgings class.
