METHODISTS TO HEAR EVANGELISTIC EXPERT

Rev. J. O. Dandall Will Address Conference of Workers at Ridge Avenue Church

The Rev. J. O. Dan dall, chairman of the General Conference General Conference commission on evangensm, will speak tomorrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, Sixth and Herr streets, to the official boards, Sunday school officers and teachers, Epworth League presidents and other church workers of the Methodist.

vicinity. Several hundred are expected to be present.

The new plans the Methodist churches all over the world have adopted will be explained fully in the visiting pastor's address. The modern methods adopted by this denomination do not repudiate the old-fashioned Methodist revival meetings, but consist of more thorough and systematic sist of more thorough and systematic work among the nonchurchgoing people of the world. The new methods emphasize particularly that personal contact hepls in bringing new members to the churches and state that every unchurched man, woman or child within any Methodist parish should be personally solicited to attend services. Plans will also be discussed concerning the continuing of special work at all times.

Next Week's Events in the Mill and Factory Sale

Beginning Monday many notable values that have not been announced heretofore will go into the Mill and Factory Sale at prices indicating the most unusual savings of the Winter. Every fresh item, no matter how low the price, represents a standard of quality that we are proud to stand back of.

Don't miss next week's specials in the Mill and Factory Sale.

The most remarkable Sale of Books in Bookdom's History occurs on Tuesday of next week when we shall sell thousands of books from the late H. B. Claflin Co. stock at almost incredibly low prices.

Imagine a sale which embraces sixteen thousand brand new books-at just about 25 per cent. of publishers' prices.
