"He has been to both Phillipsburg and Easton quite frequently of late and perfected plans for the removal. There is no park at Easton, and as Phillipsburg is a real, live, up-to-date sporting town, at least so far as base-ball is concerned, Mr. Morris has deemed it wise to make a change." One of the first persons to announce his intention to remain in the Tri-State at the close of last season was Wil-liam J. Morris. Mr. Morris advocated a lower limit, and recently expressed bis belief that a cut in expenses would prove profitable to the Tri-State. One Harrisburg official said to-day, "that the only person who really knows what is likely to happen is Pres-ident George Graham of the Tri-State and he is not ready to give publicity to his plans." "He has been to both Phillipsburg

SEEK NEW YORK RIGHTS

SEEK NEW YORK RIGHTS Jersey City Team Anxious to Locate In the Bronx New York, Feb. 9.—When the Na-tional League club owners gather at the Waldorf-Astoria to-day one of the most important questions that they will have to decide is whether they will give permission to the Interna-tional League to locate the Jersey City Club in the Bronx. President Edward G. Barrow has made a request to this effect and to-day had a long talk with President H. N. Hempstead, of the Glants, whose permission must first be obtained before the minor league will be permitted to invade New York ter-ritory.

good anywhere. One of these is Henry Buch. This officer could quit the force to-morrow, go to New York and probably get a position in the New York Hippodrome or some other play-house. He is not only an actor but a singer. Buch is the officer with the pleasant face, who is one of the Mar-ket Square traffic squad. He is also a special ambulance officer. His du-ties require him to answer all ambu-lance calls, and he has cared for many sick and injured. He is considered one of the most valuable men on the force.
