Game Warden Breaks Up Some Bounty Graft in Western Counties; Board Meeting

Dr. C. J. Marshall, the State Veterinarian, declared to-day that there was no danger of a shortage of meat cattle in the State be cause of the stringent quarantine established by the federal government against certain cattle shipcenters because of the foot and the disease.

outh disease.

"There is enough supply from free centers to take care of the demands in the State for a while at least. I do not anticipate any trouble, although the channels of shipment will be different from what we have been accustomed to," said he. "Cattle are coming in now from territory which is not infected."

The Armory Bills.—The appropriation bills of the State Armory Board will be framed at a meeting of the board scheduled for February 16. It is probable that a blanket appropriation will be asked along the lines of that granted last session, but the amount has not been decided. Provision will be made to take care of Philadelphia and a number of eastern cities. The bids for Lebanon, recalled because of changes in the plans, will be opened in March, in all probability. Eighth Commissions.—The commissions for Captain H. S. Ambrose and other officers of Company C. Eighth Regiment, at Chambersburg, have been issued and are noted in general orders.
