RELAY RACE CLASSES NOT SATISFACTORY

Tech Team Competes With but One State High School This Year

According to official announcement of the classification of High school

According to official announcement of the classification of High school runners for the Spring relay races at University of Pennsylvania, Tech sprinters expect strong competition. The only high school team classified with Tech is Altoona.

Due to the fact that Tech made such an excellent showing in the relay races last year, it is the belief, that the local runners will this year compete with faster company. However, inquiries will be made and an effort made to have the Tech boys given another class. Classes in which Harrisburg is especially interested are:

Class 4—Harrisburg, Reading, Steelton, Johnstown, West Chester, Pittsburgh Central, Williamsport, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, and Master Park. Class 5—Trenton, New York City, Richmond Hill, Altoona, Washington Western, Harrisburg Technical, Baltimore Polytechnical and Lafayette of Buffalo.

Class 6—Wilmongton, Radnor, Norristown, Philadelphia Southern, Lansdowne, Passaic, Newark South Side, Rahway, Paterson, Bayonne and Newark East Side.

For Baseball Season

There is no gainsaying the fact that Emma Carus, of the team of Carus and Randall, is the most clever woman seen on the Orpheum stage this season. True it is that Miss Carus is a good-sized and good-natured artist, but she is wonderfully clever as a comedience, singer and dancer. She fairly radiates sunshine and the smiles and laughs she wins are produced by her whole some and clever humor. In Mr. Randall, Miss Carus has a partner, who as an agile, one might add "nifty" dancer, hasn't been surpassed, doubtfully equaled, at the Orpheum. Few theatergoers would deny the fact that this interest-

JACK JOHNSON ACTS TWO FAST CONTESTS STEELTON TRIMS

ernment Counsel; Acts as Cook

By Associated Press Barbados, B. W. I., Feb. 11.-Jack Johnson, the pugilist, accompanied by his wife and Frank Hagney, an Australian boxing partner, sailed yesterday on the four-masted schooner Henry Krager for Cienfuegos, Cubat, where he will connect with a special boat which will take him to Tampico, Mexico, on his way to Juarez for his bout with Jess Willard on March 6.

While here Johnson was made defendant in a suit for damages brought by the owners of the schooner Lillian, who contended he had violated a contract to charter the vessel. The pugilist acted as his own lawyer and won the case, although pitted against the chief government counsel.

On the voyage north from Montivideo Johnson acted as ship's cook and prepared food for the entire crew.
