THIRD CLASS CITY BILLS COMING UP

Informal Conferences Planned by the Officers of the House Committee

Representatives of the Third Class City League are to be called into consultation with the House committee on municipal corporations on proposed amendments to the Clark act of 1913 establishing a code for the municipalities of the grade and the first of the series of meetings will be held on Monday night. Chairman W. D. Walton, who represents New Castle, says that it is his intention to have an informal discussion of bills prior to the hearings so that the committee may get the views and suggestions. Numerous letters have been received by him, many of them suggesting changes not made by bills, but which he thinks the committee should discuss. He has invited some of the men making these suggestions. The principal bill to be taken up next week will be that establishing civil service for policemen and firemen in the third class cities on which a difference of opinion exists as to some details and to which it has been suggested that employes of the electrical departments be added. There will be a talk on this bill on Monday night and a formal hearing on Tuesday. The next third class city bill to be considered will be that establishing a bureau of steam and hot water fitting, to which Allentown and some other cities have objected because of expense and which is advocated by some western cities and by members of the steam fitters' organizations. Another act is that proposing to take away from mayors the onerous duties of holding police courts and confining their work to the hearing of charges of violation of city ordinances. This measure has been urged for years by mayors of some of the larger cities who object to being compelled to hear drunks and petty offenders. The bill changing the provisions for the initiative and referendum and that putting in the recall will come along later.

EUROPEAN WAR PICTURES
No need for any venturesome spirit to make tracks across the sea to get a glimpse at the great war now raging. It is to be brought right to the Majestic for a return engagement, Saturday, afternoon and evening, where it will be shown on the screen and with accurate and reliable scenes taken on the spot. The greater portion of the section of the entertainment shows what awful havoc was wrought by the German army on Belgian towns and fortresses. The ruined forts at Liege, Namur and at Antwerp and the wrecked buildings at Louvain, glimpses of the action of the British army struggling for supremacy in the field of battle and hundreds of exciting events are shown in the most realistic manner. The pictures are genuine and not posed by a lot of actors.—Advertisement.

CHAMPLIN STOCK CO.
Local theatres welcome with pleasure the forthcoming engagement of Mr. Champlin and his Metropolitan Stock Company at the Majestic all of next week. The play selected for the opening on Monday afternoon is "The Reformer" and in the evening, "The Man From Home." Every play in his repertoire has had a long run in Broadway and has been produced by the best players in the country, only recently being released for stock purposes. Then, too, each play will be presented in a most elaborate manner, for special attention has been paid to the scenic and electric effects and to the production. Such successes as "The Ghost Breaker," "He Fell in Love With His Wife," "The Merry Widow," "The Maryland," "The Stranger" and "The Littlest Rebel" will be produced.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM
One of the hits supporting Emma Carus and Carl Randall, of musical comedy fame, is a rattling vocal turn "The Volunteers." The members of the act are all singers of talent and their efforts in some of the latest songs, hits and songs are being enjoyed by the audience. The act also has some comedy situations brought out, must not be told here, for the act of "The Volunteers" is a surprise turn. The Orpheum's bill this week is excellently balanced. Its greatest asset an abundance of rich comedy, with the exception of the opening act. In this respect, the supporting Emma Carus, latest star of "A Broadway Honeymoon," is the leader. The song, dance and comedy turn that she and Carl Randall are presenting at the Orpheum this week is proving popular in Harrisburg. Bert Fitzgerald is up to date in the latest of comedies and "nutty" talk to the undiluted delight of everybody. Then there is the excellent Emma Carus, who is a complete cyclone that just keeps the house in a constant uproar of laughter and four or five other clever entertainers. The bill that is both meritorious and diverting.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL
Billy Van, the popular minstrel man, who for years has been a favorite here in his black cork specialty, is one of the very interesting artists appearing on the Colonial's bill that was uncovered at the Busy Corner yesterday. Billy has a knapsack of gags that are as fresh as the eggs laid by the family hen and he proved a big hit at both yesterday's performances. Another laughing bit of this bill is a rattling comedy called "Easy Money," played by George Richards and company. The talent in this sketch is above the average, and the screeching situations of Billy's force is made the most of by this cast. Mallia Bart and company, in grotesque comedy, and the Jewell Sisters, in songs and dances, complete the vaudeville roster.—Advertisement.

UNDERNEATH THE PAINT
As the title indicates, this three-part Broadway Star feature is a most engrossing and analytical insight into the lives of those who impersonate characters different from their own. It is so intensely dramatic it will not fail to convince those who view its showing at the Photoplay to-day that hearts are sometimes breaking beneath the carefree smiles they dissimulate.—Advertisement.

VICTORIA TODAY
The management of the Victoria Theater desires to extend a cordial invitation to all the ministers and school teachers of Harrisburg and vicinity to witness this greatest of all motion picture plays—the story of Anthony and Cleopatra. In the production of this wonderful drama 7,500 persons took part. It required two years' time in which to produce this stupendous Kleine feature. The same cast of actors and actresses that played "Quo Vadis" took part in this great play. Anthony and Cleopatra pictures have been shown in some of the largest theaters in the country at prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.50.—to-day the Victoria Theater—the home of features, presents this magnificent film play at 10 cents. Don't fail to see it.—Advertisement.
