Married Men Make Best Ring Fighters

A St. Louis man has figured that unmarried men make best athletes and presents the dope to prove his case. Baseball players, who are unmarried also lead in their profession, but it doesn't apply to the ring. Oh, it appears—that the St. Louis man's theory is chloroformed right from the jump. Here's the list of the title and near titleholders:

It is to be brought right to the Majestic for a return engagement, this afternoon and evening, where it will be shown on the screen and with accurate and reliable scenes taken on the spot. CHARLES K. CHAMPLIN
"The Man From Home" will be presented by the Champlin Company on Monday evening with stage settings which are the exact reproduction of the original show. Through courtesy, Mr. Hodges permitted Mr. Champlin to use the models of the original production as a pattern to build the production being carried by the Champlin organization. In this play Mr. Champlin has an opportunity to bring forth the best that is in him, and many cities remark of the similarity in which Mr. Hodges and Mr. Champlin play the principal role. The artists with the Champlin company are especially adapted to the part in "The Man From Home" and, with the electrical effects and elaborate scenery, theatergoers of this city are promised a rare treat. Monday afternoon "The Reformer" will be given.—Advertisement.

Next week the Four Marx Brothers, celebrated comedians, will present their pretentious musical comedy called "Home Again" as the top-notch attraction. Sixteen players, more than half of them attractive and clever girls are required for the playlet, and it is staged in four picturesque stage settings. Another act is the song and comedy turn that serves to bring back our old friends, Van and Schenk. Dar-

JOHN L. SULLIVAN OPPOSES BOXING

He Is Not the Former Champion; Only an Ordinary Assemblyman

Special to The Telegraph
Albany, Feb. 13.—John L. Sullivan wants boxing prohibited. He doesn't think it's right for the State to sanction public bouts. Charles Chaplin, or better known as 'the guy who has the world laughing,' appears to-day at the Photoplay in a two-reel Essanay comedy, 'His New Job.' This who-prosecution could-not-be better named, for Chaplin in reality is now on his new job with the Essanay company, having in June left the Keystone to appear for Essanay. His start out with the Essanay is a screen from existing in the future. He is the picture, which you can attest for yourself in a sidesplitter, is merely a stepping-stone to what might be expected from 'Chaplin in future releases. Many Men
Nationally Advertised Goods.
Hats, suspenders, razors, shoes, clothing, knives, collars, shirts and what not!
Why? Because the superior quality, style or service of the goods backs up the advertising.
If you wear or use standard goods, why not be consistent and smoke a standard nickel brand—

King Oscar 5c Cigars
Regularly Good for 23 Years
Not nationally advertised, but known and smoked by many men who live outside the State.

It's Cheaper to Smoke
Moja 10c Cigars
Because an all Havana cigar has the "body" and the other essentials that make a full, satisfying aroma. One MOJA at 10c will positively give more downright keen enjoyment than 10c worth of nickel cigars. Smoke several Mojas a day and you'll break away from the habit of "smoking like a chimney."
