316 Remonstrate Against Licensing of Paxtonia Inn; Urge Safety to Travelers

Conditions are better now without the sale of liquor.

without the sale of liquor.

Sale of liquor creates danger to travel on the public highways. These two reasons are specifically set forth in the remonstrance against the granting of a license to Harry Eckinger for the Paxtonia Inn. The objection signed by 316 citizens—173 men and 143 women—was filed late yesterday afternoon. The Eckinger hearing will be one of three which will occupy the attention of the Dauphin county judges at the 1915 session of license court on Friday.

The only other remonstrances filed were those opposing the relicensing of the John Mackert bottling establishment at Lenkerville and the Ann street hotel privilege, Middletown, now held by Harry White.
