KICKING PLANK HITS WORKMAN ON HEAD

Paul Yocum's Skull Is Crushed While Working Near a Circular Saw

Special to The Telegraph Sunbury, Pa., Feb. 19.—Paul Yocum, aged 29 years, of White Deer, Pa., was fatally injured yesterday while at work on repairs to the West Milton bridge, when a heavy piece of plank, which was being ripped on a high-power circular saw was caught with the force of a cannon ball against the young man's forehead. The frontal bone was crushed and the unfortunate victim was hurled a distance of twenty feet. He was picked up by fellow workmen and rushed to the Mary M. Packer hospital here, where the surgeons removed large portions of the shattered bone and quantities of the brain, which had been penetrated by the bone splinters. The patient was still living last night but with little hopes for recovery.

THE DOCTOR'S WIFE

Agrees With Him About Food. A trained nurse says: "In the practice of my profession I have found so many points in favor of Grape-Nuts food that I unhesitatingly recommend it to all my patients."

"It is delicate and pleasing to the palate (an essential in food for the sick) and can be adapted to all ages, being softened with milk or cream for babies or the aged when deficiency of teeth renders mastication impossible. For fever patients or those on liquid diet I find Grape-Nuts and albumen water very nourishing and refreshing. "This recipe is my own idea and is made as follows: Soak a teaspoonful of Grape-Nuts in a glass of water for an hour, strain and serve with the beaten white of an egg and a spoonful of fruit juice for flavoring. This affords a great deal of nourishment that even the weakest stomach can assimilate without any distress. "My husband is a physician and he uses Grape-Nuts himself and orders it many times for his patients. "Personally I regard a dish of Grape-Nuts with fresh or stewed fruit as the ideal breakfast for anyone—well or sick."

In stomach trouble, nervous prostration, etc., a 10-day trial of Grape-Nuts will usually work wonders toward nourishing and rebuilding and in this way end the trouble. WORMLEYSBURG TO MARK CENTENNIAL

Thriving Borough Making Plans For Big Celebration in August

Wormleysburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Plans are now being made to celebrate the centennial anniversary of Wormleysburg next August. The movement has been started by J. Fred Hummel, the first burgess of the town.

The discovery of the anniversary date was an accident. J. Webster Henderson, a Carlisle attorney and historian, in turning over the files of an old paper, found the original announcement of the proposed laying out of Wormleysburg by John Wormley. The announcement was dated August 5, 1815. The information was at once communicated to influential men here, and as a result the town in August will see the greatest celebration in its history.

THE HEADACHE OF NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

A feeling as of a tight band about the head is often felt in addition to the pain of a headache that is caused by nervous exhaustion. The ache is generally in the back of the head, rarely in the forehead, and is often accompanied by dizziness. The way to stop this sort of headache is to stop the cause of it. Overwork, worry and failure of the blood to properly nourish the nerves are the most common causes. Rest and a tonic for the blood and nerves will cause the headache to disappear in most cases. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an effective tonic for building up the blood and strengthening the nerves. They furnish just the elements that the blood needs to build up the nerves shattered by overwork, worry, overstudy or excesses. You cannot always rest from school, office or housework when circumstances require but you can always take a tonic that will maintain the strength of blood and nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are just the tonic required. Mention this paper and we will send you a booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System" free. Address: Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
