AGE ONE BIG FACTOR IN RING VICTORIES

Young Men Winners in Previous Ring Battles; Johnson Is Over Age

Special to The Telegraph
New York, Feb. 20. — If ring precedents count for anything age and waning odds should prove a theoretical handicap to Jack Johnson in his coming contest with Jess Willard for the world's heavyweight championship. Pugilistic records show that no former champion of modern times has been able to successfully defend his title after reaching the age of 37, which in Johnson's case will occur on March 21.

GREEKS WIN OUT IN FINALE EVENT; THREE NEW RECORDS HUNG UP; ACADEMY INDOOR MEET SUCCESS

Greeks won over the Romans in a great finish in the third annual night meet of the Academy last night. The hair-raising victory came in the closing event when the Greeks sent in winners for first and second honors, taking the meet by a score of 63 to 61.
Never in the history of indoor athletics which have been made popular in Harrisburg Harrisburg Academy students, has there been so much interest and excitement in the contests. In attendance last night was an audience of over 900 and everybody was kept on edge by the keen rivalry and sensational finishes.

LIVE BIRD SHOOTERS COME HERE MONDAY

Big Handicap Event Is For State Championship Honors, Including Two Trophies

Live bird shooters will gather in Harrisburg Monday for the annual State shoot of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association. This will be the twenty-fifth annual event. The shooting will take place on the grounds at Fourth and Division streets, and the fastest birds possible have been provided.
Winner of the big handicap event will be entitled to State championship honors. Shooting will start at 10 o'clock in the morning and will continue all day. Among those who have entered Monday's test are 'Izzy' Hoffman, manager of the Reading Tri-State team; Chief Albert Bender, the former Athletic twirler; Lee and Frank Wertz and Edward H. Adams, the former Harrisburg, present holder of the State live bird championship.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH MURDER

Special to The Telegraph
Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 20. — Mrs. Minnie D. Leggett, the first woman charged with murder in this county in years, will be placed on trial here next Monday. She is accused of having shot and killed her husband, Clifford J. Leggett, during a quarrel at their home in January.

UNCONSCIOUS FROM COAL GAS

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., Feb. 20.—George Schrader and his wife, an aged couple residing on the Williamsport pike, a half mile south of Greencastle, were found in their bedroom at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in an unconscious condition from the effects of coal gas.

Special Display of the New Indian Motorcycles

Because of the strong local interest in motorcycles, West End Electric and Cycle Company has been selected by the Hendee Manufacturing Company, Springfield, Mass., makers of the well-known Indian Motorcycle, as one of the desirable points for the initial Indian Day display, February 22, Washington's Birthday. The West End Electric and Cycle Company, local dealer, will have on exhibition duplicates of the new models which were the sensation of the big New York and Chicago shows. The store will be open all day and evening, and each visitor will receive a handsome catalog of the 1915 Indian.

STEELTON HIGH TOSSERS LEAD; WIN GAME FROM CENTRAL FIVE

Tech Team Fell Before Fast Reading Bunch; Greystocks Here For Second Contest

Central high tossers last night on Felton hall floor, bowed to Steelton high five, score 22 to 19. It was a thrilling contest from start to finish. The victory gives Steelton first honors in the triangle race between Harrisburg and Steelton, and also a lead in the Central Pennsylvania scholastic race.
Hartman and Crump played a good game for Steelton. At Reading, Tech lost to Reading high, score 53 to 31. The superior floor work by Reading brought the victory. Tech got into the game when it was too late. Emmanuel and Beck played a great game for Tech while Wendler was Reading's star.

AMUSEMENTS

Champlin Stock Company will present to-night "The Ghost Breaker."

Boxing Show at York Attracts Much Interest

Joe Barrett, the Baltimore boxing promoter, has arranged another first-class card for Monday night at State Armory, at York. The double wind-up is between Jimmy Cross, the Southern bantam champion, and Tommy Lee, the much touted Philadelphia, Frank Hunter, the colored lightweight title holder, will meet Black Gumbo Smith, of Washington. Kid Smith, the Columbia boy, will meet Battling Kelly, Baltimore's favorite lightweight. Young Gilly, the Washington speed boy, is pitted against Fred Riley, of York. Foster Kraft and Bill Jones will furnish the opening bout, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

COLUMBIA WINS GAME

Ties Up In Intercollegiate Series With Cornell Princeton Leads
New York, Feb. 20. — In a whirlwind finish Columbia's basketball team triumphed over Cornell last night in the Morningside Heights gymnasium by the score of 25 to 16. The game was a rough-and-tumble affair with little regard for fouls. Columbia's chance to tie for the intercollegiate championship depended on her beating the Ithacaan, while a victory for Cornell would have meant a sure title. Princeton now leads the league with Columbia and Cornell tied for second. To-night's games are Dartmouth at Pennsylvania, Yale at Princeton.
