GETTYSBURG READY FOR LEAGUE BALL

Favorable Action Taken on Matter of Entering Proposed Organization For Season

IRA PLANK MANAGER OF TEAM

Head of Supposed Mad Dog Sent to State Livestock Sanitary Board

Gettysburg, Pa., Feb. 20.—League baseball for Gettysburg was assured by the meeting in the office of S. S. Neely, who is president of the association, Monday evening, when favorable action was taken on the matter of entering the proposed five-team organization including Frederick, Hagerstown, Martinsburg, Chambersburg and Gettysburg. After a lengthy discussion of the financial end of the proposition and the presentation by Manager Ira Plank of a letter from a Tri-City League official in which an itemized statement of the cost of tiding a team over the season was given, the meeting voted unanimously in favor of having league ball for the town.—Further developments in the East Middle street "mad dog" scare, in which Charles David McCullough, a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris McCullough, was bitten, came last night when the animal's head was sent to the laboratory of the State Livestock Sanitary Board in Philadelphia with the view of determining whether the dog had rabies or not. Dr. Moriarty on Monday killed the dog after it had showed symptoms of the dreaded disease and sent the head to Harrisburg. The McCullough boy, who is attended by Dr. C. C. Crist, has not shown any signs of rabies thus far. The wound, has been cauterized and the child is being closely watched.—he first pictures in connection with the baby snow at Walter's Theater were thrown on the screen Wednesday night.—Albert Lott, a 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lott, of West Middle street, has disappeared from home. The young man has not been seen since last Saturday, when he drew his wages for the week at the Reaser furniture factory.

Sore Throat or Mouth.

You must keep the throat and mouth clean and healthy. Any disease that attacks the canal through which must pass the food we eat, the beverages we drink and the very air we breathe is a serious matter. Why neglect Sore Throat or Sore Mouth when TONSILINE makes it so easy for you to get relief? TONSILINE is the remedy specially prepared for that purpose. TONSILINE does its full duty—you can depend upon it. Keep a bottle in the house—where you can get it quick when needed. 25c. and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

Never Mind How Strong You Are—

What d'ye Know?

That's the point—"What d'ye KNOW?" To-day it's a battle of wits—and brains win Muscle and brawn don't count so much as they used to.

In the fight for good jobs and big salaries it's brains—not brawn—that win. "What d'ye KNOW?" is the one great question that draws the line between defeat and victory — between "wages" and "salary" — between you and the Boss.

What do YOU know? Are YOU so expert in some line of work that you can "make good" as a foreman, superintendent, or manager? If not, why don't you mark and mail the attached coupon and permit the International Correspondence Schools to show you how you CAN "make good" on a big job?

For 23 years the I. C. S. have been showing men how to do better work and earn bigger salaries. Every month over 400 students write of promotions or salary increases through I. C. S. training. What the I. C. S. are doing for these men they can do for YOU.

No matter where you live, how old you are, what hours you work, or how limited your education—if you can read and write and are ambitious to learn the I. C. S. can train you in your own home, during your spare time, for a more important and better-paying position.

Mark and mail the attached coupon—it won't obligate you in the least—and the I. C. S. will show you how you can acquire this salary-raising ability by their simple and easy methods.

It will cost you nothing to investigate—it may cost a lifetime of remorse if you don't. Mark and Mail the Coupon NOW.

BUSINESS BUILDING FOR MILLERSBURG

Erection of New Brubaker Structure Will Be Started Very Soon

WILL BE LARGEST IN TOWN

Pennsylvania Railroad Company Will Erect Electric Power and Light Plant

By Special Correspondence

Millersburg, Pa., Feb. 20. — More than 100 members of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, on a special train, stopped at Millersburg forty-five minutes on Wednesday. The party was met at the station by a delegation of Millersburg businessmen and escorted over a part of the town, getting acquainted with our citizens. All seemed well pleased during their short stay. — Work on the new Brubaker building on the site of the big fire last August commenced this week, when a force of men began the demolition of the old walls and other debris. The contract for the excavations has been let and in a few weeks the masons will begin foundations for the building, which will be the largest and finest structure in Millersburg when completed. It will be three stories high and extend from Market street to the alley, with a frontage of 66 feet and in the rear a width of 132 feet. The building will contain modern storerooms on the first floor, with flats on the second and lodgerooms on the third floor. The building will be of brick and fireproof throughout.—The William Kolva family, residing along the Mahantongo mountain north of Millersburg, consisting of the parents and five children and a hired girl, were sorely afflicted during the past two weeks, when all of them except Mrs. Kolva were seriously ill with diphtheria. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Troutman, residing in East Union street, was also afflicted with the disease, but the speedy use of antitoxin has already restored her to nearly her normal state of health.—Chief of Police A. J. Heinbaugh, who also held the position of supervisor and health officer, has resigned those positions and will engage in farming on the Levi Walborn farm in the spring. William J. Baker has succeeded Mr. Heinbaugh in the above positions and is already on the job.—Mrs. Edward Landis, residing in Pine street, was operated upon at her home for a large tumorous growth on her back near the shoulderblade. Dr. Bogar performed the operation, which was a success. Mrs. Landis going through the ordeal without being under the influence of an anesthetic.—Rumor has it that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will in the near future erect a power and electric light plant at Millersburg to light the freight and passenger station.—Howard Chubb, son of James Chubb, was operated upon for appendicitis in the Packer Hospital at Sunbury Wednesday.—Mrs. H. G. Frederick underwent a serious surgical operation at the Harrisburg Hospital on Tuesday. —Orpha, the 10-year-old daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hangen, is a patient in the medical ward of the Harrisburg Hospital. — Miss Mary Campbell is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Aunt Este's Stories For Children

My dear little ones:

Well, I have succeeded in getting in to itchentown at last! The fire really was dreadful—only the reporter who told you about it last week got the places mixed—it was not Stone street, of course not, it was STOVE STREET, as I think you must have guessed. But then you can't blame him altogether, he does not know Kitchentown as well as we do.

And now hark to the story of

WHAT HAPPENED IN CUPBOARD STREET

Oh, in Cupboard street of Kitchentown,
That wonderful place of great renown,
There happen daily most marvelous things!
Everyone daily a different tale brings.
Says the Big Iron Pot: "No wonder I'm black,
They never use Old Dutch on my back;
The scour those Knife fellows by the hour—
But me they neglect, 'til I almost turn sour!
It's awful to be just a Big Iron Pot—
Why the Skillet is the only friend I have got."

Say the queer little Spoons and Knives and Forks—
"You needn't think WE are having such larks!
I don't see why YOU should want to be scoured!
Why, we think it's perfectly awfully horrid.
We hate it like boys hate to wash their necks,

Well, I have succeeded in getting into Kitchentown at last!
This scouring and rubbing a rub-a-dub-dub,
Makes us almost wish to be men in a tub.
Old Black Pot, you're just a lucky old thing—
Instead of grumbling we think you should sing."

Says the Big Double Boiler, "You're each one a grouch,
Now you never heard me complaining, I'll vouch.
And look how the cooks of this great town like me,
Why, I'm just as popular as ever can be.
Then she puffs up with pride and she winks her eye—
And says, 'Oh, don't you just wish you were I.'
For you see I never, never scorch—
Why the cook can use me, and sit on the porch.
If you were as popular as I be,
You never would groan and complain, you see."

So in Kitchentown in Cupboard street,
The place where the pots and pans all meet—
The most wonderful, wonderful tales are told;
They always are funny and never grow old.
So some day when passing through Kitchentown,
Just stop in this street of great renown;
And prick up your ears and listen awhile,
You will hear lots of things that will make you smile.
But be sure you wear ears of Fairy Creation—
I will whisper the name of them—IMAGINATION!

Lovingly, AUNT ESTE.
