PERMANENT GROUNDS FOR LOCAL SHOOTERS

Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association to Also Consider Plans For Clubhouse

At a meeting of the Harrisburg Sportsmen's Association about March 15, the question of securing permanent grounds will be discussed. It is understod that several good propositions will be made. It is also planned to have a clubhouse of modern design. For twenty-eight years Harrisburg has had many important shoots. A bid will be made to have the interstate shoot take place in Harrisburg. In order to offer proper inducements accommodations will be necessary for from 200 to 300 shooters. Numbered among the membership of the Harrisburg Association are many crack shots who have won laurels in the majority of the big shoots held throughout the United States. It is understood that these men are back of the project for a permanent shooting grounds and a clubhouse.

Two Big Events

On Saturday the four State shootters who tied up in the race on Tuesday will shoot off in a twenty bird race. This event will take place on the grounds at Fourth and Division streets. A sweepstake match has also been arranged. There will be plenty live birds on hand.

In the field below the live bird grounds, the first of a series of shoots for the team championship of Cumberland and Dauphin county team, and Harvey Disney will look after the Cumberland county shooters. This contest will be a fifty target race. On the following Saturday the second contest takes place at West Fairview.

On March 6, Fred Gilbert day will be observed and a big program is being arranged. The third and final shoot for the county championship will take place March 13 on grounds to be announced later. Later it is planned to have Rutherford, Highspire, Middletown and other towns enter a team race.

WILLARD TRAINING FOR ENDURANCE: KANSAS COWBOY IS ONE HARD WORKER

The Kansas Cowboy is here shown earnestly engaged in strengthening himself by roughing it with his sparring partner. He anticipates having difficulty with Johnson on the infighting, and feels it necessary that he will have to be very strong when the colored champion will attempt to wear him down, as he did to Moran in their recent fight. Willard is taking every precaution for this fight and when the participants are introduced before the fray the white race will be represented by a well-trained and coached fighter. After the fight is over perhaps the cities troubled with heavy smoke may want to interview Jess as to the way to get rid of it.

Besides being the best map so far published the Telegraph's war map contains a mass of valuable statistical matter about each of the countries involved, which it would take many hours to find in even the latest cyclopedias. Much of it can be found in no reference work. Put up handily to fit the pocket, here is a war compendium worth many times the small distribution amount of ten cents, for which you can secure it from this paper, until the present allotment is exhausted. Clip the coupon printed in another column—but do it now.

Kilbane-Kid Williams six-round bout is assured. Philadelphia is the city; the Olympia A. A., the place, and March 17 is the date. Each principal will receive a guarantee of $5,500 with privilege of 35 per cent. of the receipts.

A message from Manager Jimmy Dunn agreeing to Promoter Edwards three demands in regard to the money, referee and the date settles that angle of it, and a long distance talk between Manager Harris and Promoter Edwards in which Harris agreed to the same terms, assured the battle. Harris also agreed to post forfeit money for weight and appearance. Promoter Edwards is awaiting a reply from Dunn in regard to the latter.

The managers of the champions are skeptical. Harris was in this city Monday night trying to locate Dunn to settle the controversy. Dunn wired from Cleveland that he would agreed to Promoter Edwards' terms rather than let Harris get away. Both managers are anxious to have their proteges, Kilbane and Williams clash, and are taking all measures to make it a certainty. Signatures to a contract are expected before the close of this week, cinching this important battle.
